— No Tears In Heaven —

*There are no tears in Heaven,
Nor grief of any kind;
I leave this final teardrop
To those I left behind.
Though absent from the body,
I'm present with the Lord;
The joy of my salvation
Is now my full reward.*

The Obituary

Mrs. Regina Donnie Love, affectionately known as "Sister" to her loved ones, passed away peacefully on Saturday, May 10, 2025, at Piedmont Healthcare in Atlanta, Georgia. Born on January 26, 1953, in Lee County, Alabama, she was the cherished daughter of the late Mr. Oliver Walker and Mrs. Vera Brown Stinson. Regina's warm spirit and unwavering kindness touched the lives of all who knew her.

She attended J.F. Drake School and was a part of the FHA Club, Science Club, The Book Worms Club and the Sigma Phi Club. Regina's class was the first class to integrate to Auburn High School graduating in 1971. Regina's commitment to her education was a testament to her dedication to personal growth and development. Her academic achievements laid a strong foundation for her future endeavors, which were characterized by hard work and a deep sense of community.

Regina's professional life was marked by an impressive 30-year tenure with Mesa Industries, where she was not only a valued employee but also a friend and mentor to many. She also worked for Southern Management for ten years. Her work ethic and collaborative spirit made her a cornerstone of the company. In addition to her professional pursuits, Regina was a devoted member of the Auburn A.M.E. Zion Church in Auburn, Alabama, where she served with grace and humility.

Her involvement with the Auburn Day Care Center for over fifteen years, further showcased Regina's commitment to her community. She believed in the power of early education and dedicated countless hours to ensuring that the children in her care received the love and support they needed to thrive.

Regina's interests reflected her love for life and her appreciation for the simple joys that each day brought. She found pleasure in cleaning, a task she performed with meticulous care, ensuring that her home was a welcoming sanctuary for family and friends. Her passion for storytelling was indulged through her love of soap operas, the Lifetime channel, and the show "The Haves and the Have Nots," which provided her with endless entertainment and conversation topics.

Above all, Regina cherished the time spent with her family and friends. Her presence was a source of comfort and joy, and her laughter was infectious. She had a unique ability to make every person she met feel valued and loved, a quality that will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, James Edward Love; twin brother, Reginal Walker and sister, Bernetta Stinson.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: two children, Anisha Walker and Sakinya Love both of Auburn, AL; four grandchildren, Jaquez Oliver, Amirah Yelder, Zayden Baldwin and Sire Love all of Auburn, AL; one sister, Constance Stinson of Panama City, FL; one aunt, Annette (Eddie) Norman of Tampa, FL; three nieces, Shawntavia Stinson of Auburn, AL, Ambril Stinson and Wysheka Stinson both of Panama City, FL; two nephews, Raquay Stinson and Bryan Stinson both of Auburn, AL; three great-nephews, Cody Lilly of Auburn, AL, Makhilyn Bryant of Panama, FL and Kayson Stinson of Opelika, AL; three great-nieces, Zoey Stinson, Cali McMullan and Bunnie McMullan all of Panama City, FL; three devoted friends, Linda Day Saxton, Cassandra Lockhart and Earnestine Washington all of Auburn, AL; goddaughter, Phobee Lynch of Auburn, AL; a host of other relatives and friends.
