- The Obituary -

On Thursday, May 15, 2025, Christopher “Bae” Fears, a cherished son, grandson, husband, father, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving wife and mother at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama.

He was the beloved only child born to Patricia Fears on February 3, 1973, in Macon County, Alabama. His life was a testament to his strong faith and the joy he found in the simple pleasures of life.

Christopher attended Shiloh A.M.E. Zion Church in Opelika, Alabama. Later he reaffirmed his faith in Jesus Christ which would guide him until the end of his life.

A graduate of Smiths Station High School’s Class of 1992, Christopher excelled in athletics and was a three-sport letterman, playing Football, Baseball and Basketball. His legendary prowess on the football field garnered him a scholarship to Troy State University in Troy, Alabama.

Christopher’s athletic journey continued at Chattahoochee Valley Community College in Phenix City, Alabama where he played baseball. A lover of sports, he could often be found cheering on his favorite teams (Alabama Crimson Tide and Florida State University, reveling in the camaraderie and excitement that sports bring.

Christopher’s interests extended beyond the sports field as his love for the outdoors was equally evident. An avid outdoorsman, he found solace and joy in doing yard work, a task through which he expressed his creativity and connection to nature. He was a painter, who expressed his artistic gifts through his painting, an activity he approached with precision and passion.

Fine dining (Squisite food) and cooking were among Christopher’s favorite pastimes. He delighted in exploring new cuisines and sharing meals with those he loved. His culinary adventures were a way for him to express his love for others, creating memorable experiences around the table. The many restaurants and eateries in Savannah, Georgia were his favorites.

Christopher was a family man. His love for his family was the cornerstone of his life. As a loving son and grandson, devoted husband, and a nurturing father and grandfather, he instilled in his family the values of faith, love, and togetherness. Christopher’s role as a brother and cousin was marked by his unwavering support and affection. His friends knew him as someone who could always be relied upon. A man of integrity and warmth.

Christopher’s legacy is one of love, laughter, and an unwavering zest for life. He touched the lives of many with his generosity of spirit and his ability to see the good in everyone.

His memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew him, and his influence will continue to be felt by the countless lives he has touched.

As we bid farewell to Christopher “Bae” Fears, we celebrate a life well-lived, full of purpose and joy. His journey on this earth may have come to an end, but his spirit will forever remain an integral part of the fabric of our lives. We take comfort in knowing that Christopher is now at peace, watching over us with the same love and grace that he embodied in life. He will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: mother, Patricia Fears; wife, Kimberly Washington; father-in-law, Willie Moore; brother-in-law, Robert (Cheniqua) Gamble; children, Asheley (D’Andre) Watters and Christopher L. (Miranda) Washington; godson, Jarren Brice “JB” Fears; grandchildren, Nya Watters, Isaiah Cox, Ja’Lynn Washington, Jeremiah Washington and Ruth Ann Washington; grandmother, Ella Fears; aunts, Virginia Fears, Fannie K. McBride, and Willie Mae Brown; uncles, Raymond Graham and Otis Graham; brother, Sian Graham; sister, Ja’meeke Summers; cousins/brothers, Calvin (Danielle) Fears, Meshullam (Cathy) Chambers, Alfred (Aimee) Fuller, Quinn (Andrea) Baldwin, Eric Thomas, Jamie (Teresa) Jenkins, Antonio DeWayne Gary, Jeff (Dana) Lamar, Jermaine Cook, Bernard (Michelle) Sellers, and Johnny Matthews; cousins/sisters, Shirley Hubert, Valerie Fuller, Katina Cooper, Deidra McBride, and Shaunlonnicka Upshaw; granddog, Lucky; grandcats, SJ, Miracle, and Twin, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, friends, and sports enthusiasts.

- My Special Gift -

Of all the special gifts in life
However great or small,
To have you as my Husband
Was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softly
And whisper in your ear,
“We love you and miss you
And wish that you were here”

Deep in our hearts, your life is kept,
To love and cherish, not forget.
No more tomorrows we can share,
But yesterdays, are always there.

A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever near
In our hearts forever!

With love,
Kimberly, Asheley and Christopher

- He Only Takes The Best -

God saw you were getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So, He put His arms around you
And whispered, "COME TO ME"

With tearful eyes I watched you,
And saw you pass away.
And although I loved you dearly,
I could not make you stay.

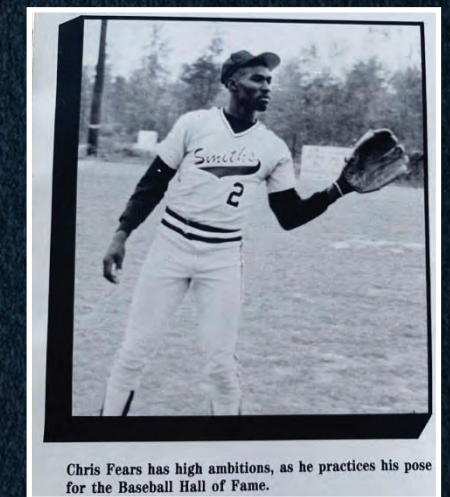

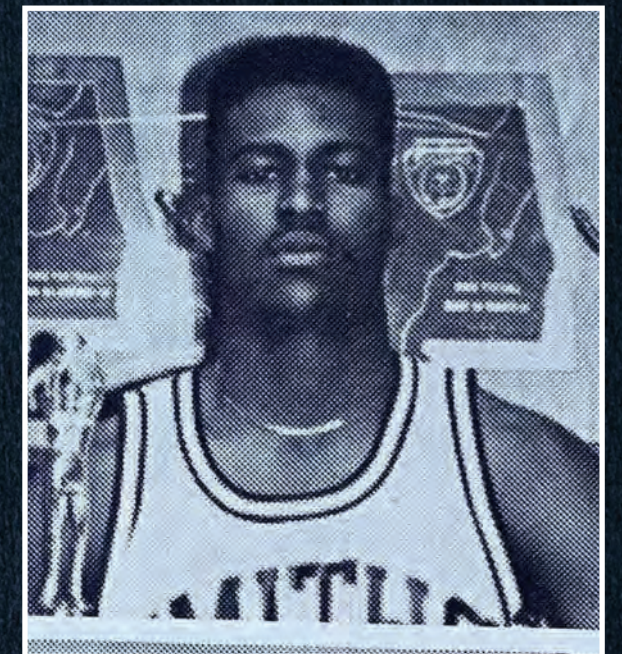

A golden heart stop breathing,
Hard working hands at work.
God broke my heart to prove to me,
"HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST"!!

I love you and I'll miss you!

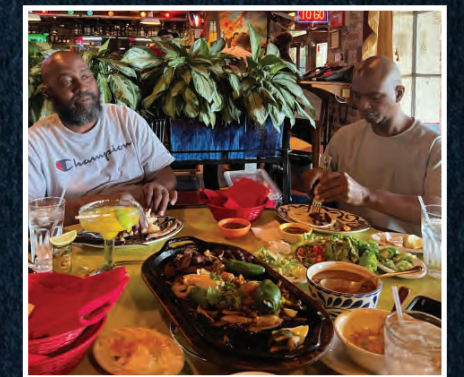

Your mother,
Patricia Fears
