Obituary

Mr. Dontavious Deshawn Shealey, affectionately known as "Don Don" to his friends and family, was a beacon of joy and laughter in the lives of all who knew him. Born on May 25, 1991, in Lee County, Alabama, to Mr. Willie Raymond Ligon, Sr. and Ms. Jacqueline Shealey, Dontavious was a bright light from the very beginning.

Dontavious's early years were spent in the nurturing environment of Loachapoka City Schools, where he cultivated a love for learning and a spirit of community. His education laid a strong foundation for the man he would become.

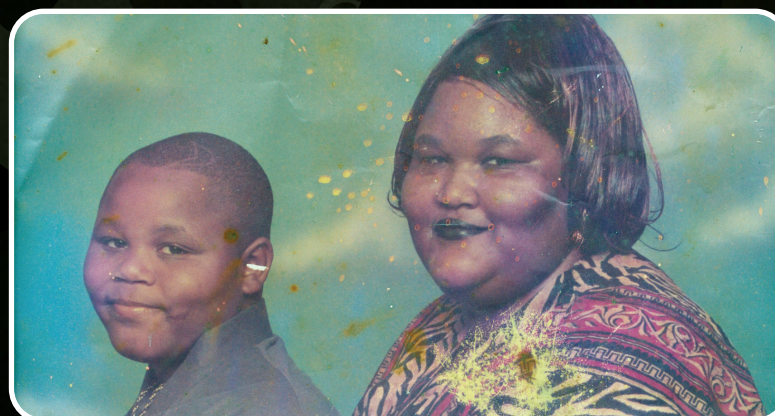

As an adult, Dontavious brought his warm smile and hardworking attitude to his roles at Bojangles and Waffle House. His colleagues and customers alike were touched by his dedication and the care he put into his work. Dontavious's commitment to service extended beyond his professional life as he was a member of the Church of God by Faith Holiness Church in Auburn, Alabama.

Dontavious's passions were as vibrant as his personality. He found joy in cooking and his sense of style was unmatched, he took great pleasure in dressing up for any occasion. Dancing was another of Dontavious's talents, and he never missed an opportunity to hit the dance floor, bringing energy and fun wherever he went.

On Sunday, May 11, 2025, Dontavious passed away in Auburn, Alabama. His departure leaves a void in the hearts of those who loved him, but his spirit will continue to inspire and guide us. Dontavious Deshawn Shealey lived his life with passion and purpose, and his memory will be cherished forever by his family, friends, and all who were fortunate enough to have known him.
