Recessional

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
Psalms 23

- OBITUARY -

Dandridge Curtis “Daniel” Torbert, a cherished soul and beacon of warmth in the lives of many, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family. Born on September 1, 1950, in Macon County, Alabama, Daniel was the proud son of the late Mr. Clinton and Mrs. Rosie Filmore Torbert. His early years in Alabama laid the foundation for a life full of joy, love, and enduring friendships.

Daniel was a proud graduate of the Tuskegee Institute High School Class of 1970. His academic achievements were just the beginning of a life marked by dedication and hard work. Daniel’s passion for the outdoors was evident to all who knew him. He was an avid hunter and fisherman, often found reveling in the tranquility of nature. His collection of guns was not just a hobby but a testament to his appreciation for craftsmanship and heritage.

Throughout his life, Daniel was known for his unwavering kindness and generosity. He was a loving husband, whose devotion to his wife was as clear as the joy in his laughter. As a father and grandfather, Daniel instilled values of respect, love, and the importance of family. His siblings found in him not only a brother but a confidant and a friend.

Daniel’s absence leaves a void in the hearts of those who loved him, yet his spirit remains a guiding light. His legacy is one of love, laughter, and the precious moments shared with family and friends. Daniel’s life was a testament to the beauty of simplicity and the strength of kinship. He will be profoundly missed, yet lovingly remembered, as a man who truly made the world a warmer place.

On Sunday, May 18, 2025, he departed this life at his home in Valley, Alabama. He was preceded in death by: his son, Melvin Felton.

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Sherry Torbert of Valley, AL; four children, Michael (Patricia) Felton of Tuskegee, AL, Keith (Annie) Torbert of Opelika, AL, Alexander Torbert of Valley, AL and Kendarious (Misty) Morris of Opelika, AL; two sisters, Susan (JT) Cason of Decatur, GA and Shirley (Michael) Hughley of Tuskegee, AL; two brothers, Clinton (Gloria) Torbert, Jr. of Opelika, AL and Michael Torbert of Tuskegee, AL; three aunts, Angeleen (Louis) Gray of Wichita, KS, Nona Sistrunk of Syracuse, NY and Bobbie Torbert of Richmond, VA; nineteen grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Kimberly Felton of Auburn, AL; one sister-in-law, Marie Johnson of Midland, GA; three brothers-in-law, Steve (Tina) Johnson of Opelika, AL, William (Donna) Johnson of Valley, AL and Timmy (Sharon) Johnson of Greensboro, NC; a special friend, Reverend Andrew Peoples of Opelika, AL; a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
