William
BERNARD ROBINSON

- The Obituary -

William Bernard Robinson, affectionately known as Bernard, departed this life to join his heavenly father on a peaceful morning surrounded by his loving family. Born on May 15, 1961, in Macon County, Alabama, Bernard was the cherished son of the late Mr. William R. and Mrs. Thelma Love Robinson. His life was a testament to the values of faith, family, and hard work, which he embraced wholeheartedly from a young age.

Bernard's spiritual journey began early as he confessed Christ and became a devoted member of Mt. Pelia Missionary Baptist Church in Camp Hill, Alabama. His faith was the cornerstone of his existence, guiding him through life's trials and triumphs with unwavering grace. Bernard's commitment to his church and community was evident in his actions and the love he shared with those around him.

A man of many talents and interests, Bernard found joy in the simple pleasures of life. He had a passion for automobiles, which was reflected in his meticulous care for washing and repairing cars. His hands were rarely still, as he was often found tinkering under the hood of a car, ensuring it ran as smoothly as the day it left the showroom floor. Bernard's love for cars was only matched by his dedication to his garden. He took great pride in cultivating a variety of plants and vegetables, which he generously shared with neighbors and friends.

Family gatherings were the highlight of Bernard's life. He was the heart and soul of every event, bringing laughter and warmth to the room. His presence was a comforting constant, and his absence will be deeply felt at future family occasions. Bernard's ability to connect with people extended beyond his kin; he was a friend to many, always ready to lend a helping hand or a listening ear.

Bernard's legacy is carried on by a loving family who adored him. He leaves behind a tapestry of memories that will be cherished by all who were fortunate enough to know him. His spirit, characterized by generosity and kindness, will continue to inspire those he touched. As we say farewell to William Bernard Robinson, we celebrate a life well-lived, full of love, laughter, and the joy of everyday moments. His journey on earth may have concluded, but his story will be told for generations to come, a beautiful narrative of a man who made the world a better place simply by being in it.

He departed this life on Sunday, May 25, 2025, at UAB Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama. He was preceded in death by: son, William Bernard Gunn; brother, Bobby Robinson.

He leaves to cherish his memory: three children, Lashundra (Corey) Thomas of Salem, AL, Yolanda (Herchel) Shelley of Dadeville, AL and Quindarius Matthews of Auburn, AL; thirteen grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two brothers, Tony Robinson and Terry Robinson both of Waverly, AL; a special cousin, Mary Frances Dinkins of Waverly, AL; a special friend, Betty Gibson of Opelika, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
