— When Tomorrow Starts
Without Me —

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me,

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand,

And said my place was ready,
In heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

Mr. Barion Keith Wilson passed away peacefully at his home in Opelika, Alabama, on Sunday, June 22, 2025. Born on June 19, 1964, in Broward County, Florida, to the late Mr. Mackie Lee Wilson and Mrs. Hattie Richmond Burns, Barion's life was a testament to the values of love, family, and community.

From a young age, Barion demonstrated a profound commitment to his faith. He confessed Christ and became a member of Bethel No. 2 Missionary Baptist Church.

An avid fisherman, Barion found solace and joy in the tranquility of nature. His love for painting allowed him to express his creative side, capturing the beauty of the world as he saw it. A sports enthusiast, he enjoyed watching games and cheering on his favorite teams, reveling in the camaraderie and excitement that sports bring.

He was a beacon of light in the lives of those he touched, and his presence brought a sense of peace and contentment to all who entered his home.
