- The Obituary -

Our beloved Mr. Raymond Lewis Comer was born on July 25, 1953, in Tuskegee, Alabama, to the late Mr. Frank and Annie R. Ligon Comer.

A proud graduate of Beauregard High School Class of 1972, Raymond carried the values of his education throughout his life. He believed in hard work and for over thirty years he was a steadfast employee at West Point Mill.

Raymond's dedication to his work was matched only by his passion for his beloved Alabama Crimson Tide. An avid fan, he rarely missed a game, and his enthusiasm for his team was infectious.

Above all, Raymond's greatest pride and joy were his family. He believed in honesty and believed in the importance of showing up for family and friends.

On Saturday, July 19, 2025, he departed this life in the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Franchesca Strickland (Corey Brewer) of Valley, AL; seven grandchildren; four sisters, Olivia (Sam) Jones of Atlanta, GA, Barbara (Frank) Parker of Union City, GA, Betty (Lionel) White of College Park, GA and Martha Chaney of Union City, GA; one brother, John Gordy of Indianapolis, IN; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

- His Journey's Just Begun -

Don't think of him as gone away
His journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one
And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched.
For nothing loved is ever lost
And he was loved so much.

Recessional

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that was once shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Bear your sorrow in good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.
