*Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more day by day
You tell me of our future that you planned:
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve:
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.*

- The Obituary -

Mr. John Heflin Hughley, son of Mrs. Sarah Turner Elaster and the late Mr. Acie Ray Hughley, was born September 9, 1956 in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

At an early age, he confessed Christ and united with Spring Hill Primitive Baptist Church in Camp Hill, Alabama. He later united with God's House of Prayer in Camp Hill, Alabama.

John found his true calling with cars. His passion was not just in the mechanics but the aesthetics, as he devoted himself to the art of washing and detailing vehicles. He took immense pride in ensuring that the Harris Funeral Home fleet shone with precision and care, reflecting not just a brilliant finish but also the dedicated spirit of the man who tended to them. As part of the Harris Funeral Home family, his absence will be deeply felt by his colleagues.

John's meticulous nature extended to his personal style; he was a sharp dresser who knew the power of a good suit. It was a rare occasion to find him anything less than perfectly put-together, a testament to the detail-oriented man that he was.

An avid sports enthusiast, John spent many hours engrossed in football games, cheering for his favorite team with an unwavering passion. Above all, John's heart lay with his family and friends. No gathering was complete without John's warmth, laughter, and the sense of unity he naturally fostered.

John Heflin Hughley's legacy is one of joy, love, and meticulous care for the world around him. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who were touched by his kindness and the vibrant life he led. He was truly one of a kind, and his presence will be sorely missed.

On Thursday, September 4, 2025, he departed this life at WellStar West Georgia Medical Center in LaGrange, Georgia. He was preceded in death by: one son, Victor Brooks; one brother, James Edwards "Bubba" Hughley; stepfather, Louis James Elaster.

He leaves to cherish his memory: seven children, Michelle Collins of Opelika, AL, Ramona Wells of Detroit, MI, Kambi Armstrong of Antioch, TN, Tori (Shay) Brooks, Jerry Bonner both of Chattanooga, TN, Daquan Sheely of Jackson's Gap, AL and Micheal Macon of Phenix City, AL; mother, Sarah Elaster of Camp Hill, AL; twenty-one grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mary Scaife of Chattanooga, TN and Rae Landrum of Camp Hill, AL; one uncle, Harry (Mary) Hart of Camp Hill; a devoted companion, Elizabeth Thomas of Goodwater, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
