Someone Is Missing

Let this be a loving reminder,
That someone is missing today,
Someone our hearts still hold on to.
As we travel along life's way.
Someone who made life so special,
For all those who gather here,
Someone who won't be forgotten,
But cherished from year to year.
And now as we pause to remember,
Let us all fondly recall,
How dearly each of us loved him,
And oh, how he loved us all!
We're going to miss you brother!

From,
Ernest, James, Mary, Annie and Olia

Obituary

Eddie Webb, a man of exceptional skill and boundless enthusiasm, was born on September 26, 1948, in Tallapoosa County, Alabama to the late Mr. Howard and Mrs. Evelyn Milner Webb. Eddie was known for his enduring presence and the masterful touch he lent to everything his hands found to do.

Throughout his lifetime, Eddie's passions were many and varied. He took immense pleasure in landscaping, an art he regarded as painting with the living hues of nature. His garden was his canvas, where he created breathtaking vistas that ebbed and flowed with the seasons. In these green spaces, Eddie found solace, joy, and a tangible connection to the earth that he tended with great care and affection.

Building and fixing things were not just hobbies for Eddie; they were a testament to his firm belief that anything broken could be made whole again with patience and ingenuity. Neighbors, friends, and even strangers often found their way to Eddie's doorstep, seeking his expertise. When he was not repairing, Eddie loved fishing.

On Tuesday, October 28, 2005 he passed away peacefully at his home. He was preceded in death by one brother, Conway Webb.

He leaves to cherish his memory: loving wife of sixty years, Margaret Webb of Phenix City, AL; one son, Anthony Scott of Alexander City, AL; one daughter, Nyeshia Webb of Columbus, GA; four grandchildren, Anthony Lewis, Zikya Webb both of Phenix City, AL, Ziquan Webb of Japan and Jayla Webb of Columbus, GA; two brothers, Ernest Webb and James (Vanessa) Webb both of Waverly, AL; three sisters, Mary Nell Lyles of Waverly, AL Annie Doris (Richard) Staples of Opelika, AL, Olia (Earl) Cole of Auburn, AL; four sisters-in-law, Mary Shaw of Reeltown, AL, Rosia Nell Scott and Mary Briggs both of New York, NY and Betty Mosley of Auburn, AL; four brothers-in-law, Willie (Dorothy) Scott, Richard (Estelita) Scott of Auburn, AL, Nathaniel Scott all of Waverly, AL and Johnny Scott of Phenix City, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

YOU WILL BE MISSED EDDIE
