The Obituary

Mrs. Beatrice Ashmore Webb, daughter of the late Mr. Dewey and Mrs. Lucille Collins Ashmore, was born April 6, 1940, in Lee County, Alabama.

She confessed Christ and united with Bethel #1 Missionary Baptist Church in Opelika, Alabama.

“BB” as she was affectionately known by family and friends, had boundless enthusiasm for her hobbies and interests. She had an unrivaled talent for crocheting, creating countless pieces that adorned the homes of her family and friends. Her hands were rarely still, as she was often seen with a puzzle in progress, her mind as sharp as the click of the puzzle pieces fitting together. Cooking was another of B.B.'s joys, and her garden provided a bounty of fresh produce that made her kitchen a place of gathering and shared laughter.

Gardening was more than a pastime for B.B.; it was a testament to her nurturing spirit. Her garden was a vibrant tapestry of flowers and plants, lovingly tended and a source of solace and beauty. The parallel between her garden and her life was unmistakable—both meticulously cared for, flourishing under her attentive hand.

On Monday, October 28, 2025, she departed this life at the Bethany House in Auburn, Alabama. She was preceded in death by: one son, Smith Gibson, Jr.; six siblings, Willie James Collins, Maggie Mae Carr, Harold Ashmore, James Ashmore, Elnora Henderson and Betty Jean Mennifield.

She leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Carl Webb of Opelika, AL; step-daughter, Tanakai Goosby of Opelika, AL; daughter-in-law, Betty Gibson of Opelika, AL; one grandson, Malik Gibson of Opelika, AL; three great-grandchildren; two brothers, Durr Ashmore of Auburn, AL and William “Bill” Ashmore of Opelika, AL; one and only devoted sister, Hazel Lindsey of Opelika, AL; one brother-in-law, Willie L. Walton; one aunt, Mary Foster of Knoxville, TN; devoted cousin, Mary Collins of Opelika, AL; a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Quiet Goodbye

I left this life in gentle sleep,
A peaceful drift, a journey deep.
No pain, no fear, no hands were held,
Just whispered winds, a soft farewell.
To everyone I love, please hold me near,
In every joy, every laugh and every tear.
Though sudden was my final rest,
Remember me at my very best.
The laughter shared, the dreams we spun,
The moments bright as rising sun.
Do not weep with sorrow's weight,
For love endures beyond our fate.
In every smile and thought of me,
I will live in your love, eternally.
The dreams we shared, the times we'd talk,
The moments bright as morning's walk.
Please carry on, with strength and grace,
I'm still with you in a timeless place.
Though gone, I'm nearer than you know,
In each warm hug, I will softly show.
