Today I stand before you to tell you a little bit about the most amazing woman we know. To you all she was Ms. Hall but to us she was Grandma, Muh or Madear. There are not enough words in any dictionary to describe Madear. When I hear the song "My Girl" by The Temptations, it has always reminded me of you. Because you were truly our sunshine on any cloudy day. I can remember when my mom used to pick me up from your house and I would take off running from her cause I couldn't stand to be away from you, and you would tell my mom "Leave her alone Mary" I'll just bring her to the house when she calms down! I say this today, that no matter what, you always had our backs and we thank you for raising us to be who we are today. We are not perfect, but you raised us to have character, determination, and a Love for God. For every life lesson, you were always by our side and we are grateful. Lastly, you instilled in all of us to lean and trust God in everything we do. I know that God is the only reason we are standing here today. We love you and will miss you dearly Madear. You were my best friend! Rest well my Sweet Angel! I Love You Madear.

Your granddaughter, Lurasha

REVEREND ANTHONY SHEALEY, OFFICIATING

— Obituary —

Mrs. Elaine Ware Hall, daughter of the late Mr. Tom and Mrs. Florence Wagner Ware, was born January 30, 1933, in Lee County, Alabama.

“MaDear”, as she was affectionately known by family and friends, had a life that was filled with devout faith and service. She dedicated her life to her spiritual family at Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Loachapoka, Alabama where she enjoyed fellowshiping with everyone. As the cherished mother of the church, she embodied grace and resilience, guiding the congregation with wisdom that only comes from a life deeply rooted in faith.

Her interests reflected the beauty that she saw in the world and the joy she derived from simple pleasures. Gardening and caring for flowers allowed her to cultivate a world of color and vibrancy that reflected the warmth of her soul. Her garden was a source of pride and a symbol of her love for the serenity and creativity found in nature.

In her spare time, she enjoyed spending time in the local stores, where she was a familiar and cherished face. Also, she enjoyed watching game shows and soap operas.

On Saturday, November 22, 2025, she departed this life at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. She was preceded in death by: her husband, Tom Hall, Sr.; one son, Jimmy Ware; one grandson, Derrick L. Harris; two brothers, Talmage Ware, and Greely Ware; nine sisters, Tressie Jennings, Marla Ware, Lodessa Smith, Betty Burk, Amy Cannon, Modean Epps, Vinnie Farley, Dorine Smith and Mary Lee Morman.

She leaves to cherish her memory: six children, Inez (James) Boutwell of Syracuse, NY, Beatrice Harris, Joanne Askew, Tom Hall, Jr, all of Auburn, AL, Garyson Hall of Richmond, VA and Gregory Hall of Syracuse, NY; seventeen grandchildren, Pamela Harris, Aldric Harris, Eldridge Harris, Tammie Boutwell, Elfreem Boutwell, Jermaine Boutwell, Laurasha Smith, Denise Cobb, Quinne (Kimberly) Floyd, Lavondria (Kevin) Patterson, Vernell (Kimberly) Patterson, Alisha Hall, Airelle Hall, Crystal (Reginald) Shealey, Montary (Shana) Smith, Donteral (Phyllis) Askew and LaQuanza Smith; four generation of great-grandchildren; four nephews, Johnny White, Jeff White, Tony Smith and Frank (Linda) Smith; ten nieces, Linda Arnold, Pearline Burk, Bessie Burk, Jessica Morris, Kim White, Stephanie White, Judy White, Josilee Ogletree, Jean Ogletree and Shawnta Ware; a host of cousins and friends.
