A PEACEFUL HOMEGOING

When my days on earth had ended
And my time had finally come,
Do not think that I have left you,
Rejoice, my battle has been won.
In the quiet, distant moments
When I seemed so far away,
My Savior sat right beside me,
Preparing me for this day.
He calmed my fears and eased my pain;
There was no suffering at the end.
What felt so long and hard for you
Was peaceful as He took my hand.
I know you did all you could do,
And God heard every cry,
For He reached down with gentle love
And softly closed my eyes.
