Obituary

Brucie Mae Brown was born on April 14, 1933, in Waverly, Alabama, the first child of the late Mr. Bruce Rowell and Mrs. Hurtis Devance Rowell.

She confessed her belief in Christ at a young age and united with Mount Pelia Missionary Baptist Church where she began cultivating the gifts that would follow her throughout her life. She loved to sing – a joy she shared boldly and freely. She organized The Gospel Views and The Angelic Gospel Singers traveling throughout Alabama to uplift churches and communities through song. She ended her singing with The Evening Stars.

She received her education from Lee County Training School, currently, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Park and Pavillion. Later, she received her GED from Strafford Career Institute in 2009. Brucie Mae was a sister of the Order of Eastern Star for many years.

Brucie Mae was the life of every gathering. With her bright spirit and playful personality, she brought laughter, energy, and love wherever she went. She always liked to carry on, and people loved her for it. Her presence filled rooms, and her voice became a soundtrack of encouragement to anyone blessed to hear it.

She was preceded in death by her father, Mr. Bruce Rowell; her mother, Mrs. Hurtis Lee Devance Rowell; her sisters, Mrs. Lulene Price and Mrs. Mary Hudson and daughter, Sequetta Tunshun Hughley.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her devoted children, Mrs. Glenda N. (Gregory) Moss of Loachapoka, AL, Mr. Cleveland L. Hughley of Dayton, OH, Dr. Dinah. J. Marks of DeSoto, TX and Ms. Brenda S. Hughley of Petersburg, VA; seven grandchildren, Delanor Davis, Sequetta Marks, Octavis Davis, Ursela Marks, Breana (Charles) Latimore, Cleondria Bryant and Gregory Moss; four great-grandchildren, Ariyana Davis, Delanor Davis, II, A'zaria Moss and Raela Moss; three loving sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Burgess, Mrs. Orine Black both of Auburn, AL and Mrs. Ellen Taliaferro of Kissimmee, FL and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, church family and friends who will forever feel her imprint on their lives.

Though her earthly voice may now be silent, the songs she sang, and the joy she spread will continue to echo through the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
