

CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

We Honor You

Rest now, dearly beloved, your journey's done,
But know your love will shine forever like the sun.
In every beat of our grieving hearts,
Your spirit lives on and will never depart.

BISHOP KENNETH CARTER, OFFICIATING

- Obituary -

Mrs. Grace Mae Hooks Logan, daughter of the late Mr. Sam and Mrs. Mattie Stokes Hooks, was born March 17, 1939 in Elmore County, Alabama.

She confessed Christ and united with Christ Temple Holiness Church in Opelika, Alabama where she sung in the choir, served on the Usher Board and Kitchen Committee.

She enjoyed gardening and cooking. Grace made her home a sanctuary for the elderly, offering companionship and care to those in need. She believed that everyone deserved a place to call home, and she tirelessly worked to ensure that the elderly in her community felt loved, valued, and self-sufficient.

As we bid farewell to Grace, we celebrate her life and the indelible mark she left in Tallassee, Alabama. Her memory will continue to flourish like the gardens she tended to with such affection, and her recipes will linger on the taste buds of those who were fortunate enough to enjoy her cooking. Grace Logan's legacy of care and community spirit will continue to live on through the many lives she enriched.

On Saturday, January 31, 2026, she departed this life at her home in Opelika, Alabama. She was preceded in death by: husband, Raymond Logan; son, Ray Lee Moss; son-in-law, Eddie McCormick.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory: five children, Melinda McCormick, Willie (Robin) Moss, Tony Moss all of Opelika, AL, Sam (Shelia) Hooks of Salem, AL and Steve (Ada) Moss of Tallassee, AL; twenty-six grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
