CELEBRATION OF LIFE FOR

- Obituary -

Mr. Jason Jermaine Chambless, son of Mr. Jesse James and Mrs. Eugenia Gaston Chambless, Sr., was born December 25, 1982, in Jefferson County, Alabama.

He confessed Christ and united with Faith Chapel Christian Center in Birmingham, Alabama.

Affectionately known as "Trill" by family and friends, graduated from Hueytown High School, Class of 2001. After graduating from Hueytown High School, he was accepted to Auburn University in 2002. He also joined the Army Reserve in 2002 and was commissioned to serve in Afghanistan as a food inspector. While in Afghanistan, he volunteered outside the camp, vaccinating animals. PFC Chambless received the Global War of Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Army Commendation Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Army Forces Reserve Medal with "M" Device and Army Service Ribbon, before receiving his Honorable Discharge. Later, he came home and met the love of his life Tanesha Moore.

Trill enjoyed fishing and rapping and was known for his warm spirit, never meeting a stranger. He had a deep love for children and was a giving and compassionate person. His greatest joy was his children, and he possessed a special gift for bringing people together. Trill was well loved by all who knew him and was an avid Auburn Tigers football fan.

On Tuesday, February 3, 2026, he departed this life at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama.

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Tanesha Moore of Auburn, AL; four children, Jayuanna Chambless, Tyquavious Dowdell, Javious Mitchell all of Auburn, AL and Miguel Rudolph (Chambless) of Montgomery, AL; parents, Jesse James and Eugenia Chambless of Birmingham, AL; one sister, Terika Wallace of McCalla, AL; one brother, Jesse (Melanie) Chambless, Jr. of Auburn, AL; one uncle, Joseph (Jeanette) Gaston of Atlanta, GA; two aunts, Ginevera (Robert) Sims of Greenwood, MS and Marcella (Charles) McGrue of Birmingham, AL; father-in-law, Richard Moore, Sr. of Auburn, AL; mother-in-law, Gloria (Jimmy) Dowdell of Opelika, AL; one sister-in-law, Janquie Brock of Atlanta, GA; one brother-in-law, Richard Moore, Jr., of Auburn, AL; four nieces, Harper Chambless, Charlotte Chambless both of Auburn, AL, Karson Lockhart and Kaylie Wallace both of Birmingham, AL; three nephews, Kelvin Wallace II, Keagan Wallace both of Birmingham, AL and Jaden Echols of Auburn, AL; extended family, Nelva Walker and her late husband Gaston Walker (family friend), Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Ford (Godparents), and Barbara Gibson (family friend) and a host of other relatives and friends.

Recessional

"The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever."

Psalm 23
