- The Obituary -

Ms. Sacaria Nicole Frazier was born on December 19, 2004, in Lee County, Alabama to Mrs. Nicole Marcus and Mr. Dexter Frazier.

She shared an unbreakable bond and was deeply loved by her sister, Alicia Frazier. Also, she was cherished by André Marcus, who was a devoted father, along with her brothers and sisters, Izayah, Kimberly, Ethan, and Gabrielle Marcus, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Sacaria was expressive in voice and found joy in butterflies, reflecting a spirit that was free and still becoming. She loved deeply and carried a fire as unforgettable as her ginger hair.

On Saturday, February 7, 2026, she transitioned from this life to eternal rest, surrounded by love that will never leave her. Though her time here was brief, her voice, her laughter, and her presence will forever live in the hearts of those who truly knew and loved her.

- The Purple Butterfly -

Don't look for me where the ground feels heavy,
I was never meant to stay low long.
I rose to stretch my wings,
To grow beyond what eyes can see.
Like a butterfly, I was changing,
Becoming more than yesterday.
I did not end — I transformed.
I am free.
I am light.
And love still carries my name.
