- The Obituary -

Mrs. Mae Eliza Moore, daughter of the late Mr. Meredith and Mrs. Bessie Mae Sanford Meredith, was born on October 12, 1931 in Lee County, Alabama.

At an early age, she confessed Christ and united with St. Luke A.M.E. Church in Opelika, Alabama. Upon uniting in holy matrimony with the late Mr. Johnny D. Moore, she joined the Ferguson Chapel C. M. E. Church in Opelika, Alabama. She worked faithfully as a Stewardess, served on the Missionary Society and actively participated in the Women's Community Bible Study until her health declined.

Her passion was helping others, cooking, gardening, and reading inspirational books. Most of her life, she was a homemaker. Later, she worked in several restaurants in the city of Opelika, Alabama. She retired from Opelika City School System as a custodian after thirty years of dedicated service.

Mrs. Mae Eliza Moore, at the age of 94, transitioned to her eternal rest on March 22, 2026. She was preceded in death by her husband, Johnny Darden Moore. She was the last of her surviving family members: her twin sister, Eliza Mae Wright; brother, Malvin Meredith; his twin sister, Marion Pollard; and brother Gabriel Meredith.

- Miss Me, But Let Me Go -

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - But not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - But let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends that we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do,
Miss me - then let me go!
