- The Obituary -

Mr. Cecil Lee Trimble, Jr., son of the late Mr. Cecil and Mrs. Leila Pearl McPier Trimble, Sr., was born October 22, 1947, in Lee County, Alabama.

At an early age, he confessed Christ as his Savior and united with Allen Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Gold Hill, Alabama.

"Brother", as he was affectionately known by family, was a proud graduate of J.W. Darden High School Class of 1967. After high school, he was hired at Uniroyal Tire Company in Opelika, Alabama. Answering the call of duty, he was drafted into the United States Army and served during the Vietnam War. After receiving an Honorable Discharge from duty served, he returned to Uniroyal Tire Company and retired after nearly forty years of service.

He will be remembered by family and friends, for his attention to all details when he was detailing his cars and other vehicles for family and friends. He also enjoyed manicuring his yard.

On Thursday, April 30, 2026, he departed this life at his home surrounded by his family. He was preceded in death by three sisters, Inez Hughley, Patricia Trimble and Bernice Black.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Mae Jean Trimble; three children, Cecilia Trimble, LaToya Trimble and Cecil Lee Trimble III all of Opelika, AL; a cousin as a brother, Bishop Larry (Elder Anna) Torbert of Opelika, AL; sister-in-law, Dorothy (Bishop Charles) Pink of Holyoke, MA; two nieces, Tuwana (Carl) Milford of Opelika, AL and Veronica (Alvin) Thibodeaux of Lithonia, GA; three nephews, Vaygen (Alesha) Trimble of Spring Hill, TN, Vonroyce (Christina) Trimble and Vavion Cooper of Opelika, AL; a host of great-nieces; great-nephews, cousins and many friends.

- If We Could -

If we could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love;
We'd have countless things to say.

If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasured you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.

If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now,
And if we could, we would.
