- OBITUARY -

Mr. Christopher Randolph Jackson, son of the late Mrs. Mae Jean Jackson Ware, was born January 28, 1970, in Lee County, Alabama.

At an early age, he confessed Christ and united with Ebenezer C.M.E. Church in Loachapoka, Alabama.

“Chris”, as he was affectionately known by family and friends, graduated from Loachapoka High School as a proud member of the Class of 1988, where he made lasting memories as a drumline member in the marching band. He enjoyed listening to music, and music remained a meaningful part of his life throughout the years. Christopher also loved spending time with his family, and those moments were among the most treasured in his life.

On Wednesday, June 24, 2026, he departed this life at Dadeville Healthcare Center in Dadeville, Alabama. He was preceded in death by: a sister, Barbara Ann Jackson; a nephew, Cornelius Hart.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a sister, Raynetta Ware of Auburn, AL; a brother, Raymond Ware of Auburn, AL; a special niece, Shermika Jackson (Roderick) Ogletree of Auburn, AL; two nieces, Kynlee Ogletree and Emery Ogletree both of Auburn, AL; three nephews, Demetrius Heard, Kentarius Jackson and Rylan Ogletree all of Auburn, AL; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

- UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN -

*We know up in heaven, there'll be no more tears;
Painful moans and groans will turn to joyful cheers.
Death will be defeated, grief will finally cease;
Broken souls will be filled with God's eternal peace.
Cries will be heard no more, only singing and praise
To our heavenly Father and the Son that He raised.
Sorrow and heartaches will no more be heard of
For there up in heaven there'll only be God's love.
We know up in heaven, former things will have passed
And the best part about it is being with Jesus at last!
Until We Meet Again!*
