- OUR BELOVED -

With steady hands and shoulders wide,
He bore his burdens, walked with pride.
Through years of service, side by side,
He gave his best and always tried.
He served this nation, heart in hand.
From Marine Corps to work so grand.
In church he knelt with strength and grace,
A man who knew his rightful place.
And now he rests, his journey done,
Beneath the sky, beneath the sun.
He walks with angels, strong and free—
His soul at peace eternally.
