Obituary

Beunkus Shanequa Collins, affectionately known as “Bee,” was a vibrant and compassionate soul whose light touched the lives of many. She was born on March 27, 1993, at St. Clair Hospital in Pell City, Alabama, and entered eternal rest on August 31, 2026, at 5:49 a.m. EST.

Beunkus began her athletic journey at the age of six as a cheerleader for her brother’s football team. As she grew older, she continued to excel athletically as a track and basketball athlete. In recognition of her outstanding achievements, dedication, and commitment to physical excellence, she received the Presidential Physical Fitness Award in 2004.

Beunkus was a proud graduate of Opelika High School’s Class of 2011 in Opelika, Alabama. She received her first scholarship from Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church in Salem, Alabama. Throughout her educational journey, Beunkus achieved many accomplishments. She enjoyed public speaking and was a talented member of the T.K.O. Step Team. Expressing herself through dance brought her immeasurable joy.

After accepting a track scholarship to Concordia College Alabama in Selma, Alabama, Beunkus continued her education while pursuing her dream of becoming a nurse. From an early age, Beunkus loved others and possessed a genuine passion for helping others. She did not have to know someone personally to extend a helping hand. God blessed her with a special love for children, and she found great joy in caring for and encouraging them. In 2018, Bee successfully graduated from Christian Women Job Corporation, Auburn, Alabama.

Bee also began writing her first book, I Didn’t Know My Own Strength, which shared her personal story of surviving adversity in a world struggling to embrace diversity. Through her writing, she hoped to encourage others and promote love, strength, acceptance and unity.

Her faith remained an important part of her life. During her college years, she enjoyed praise dancing for the Lord and traveling throughout various regions to minister to God’s people. Bee often found purpose and inspiration in the Word of God while serving and uplifting others. One of her favorite scriptures is Matthew 1:21. This scripture held a special place in her heart. During moments of prayer and meditation, she embraced the meaningful truth that “waiting time is not wasted time.”

Beunkus was greatly loved and will be remembered for her vibrant spirit, compassionate heart, athletic determination, creative gifts and unwavering desire to help others. Her beautiful light and legacy of love will continue to live in the hearts of everyone blessed to have known her.

Beunkus was preceded in death by grandparents: Mary Moss of Tallassee, AL, Curtis (Emma) Collins of Lincoln, AL, and Norman (Clarice) Brown of Dayton, OH.
