- The Obituary -

Mrs. Ann Jackson Bandy, daughter of Mrs. Eva Mae Patrick Jackson and the late Mr. Willie Jackson, was born February 25, 1962, in Lee County, Alabama.

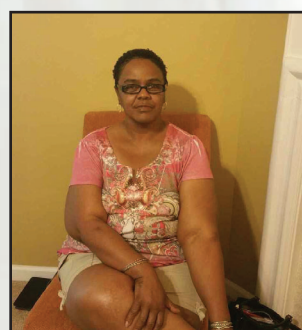

At an early age, Ann confessed her faith in Christ and united with Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in the Gold Hill Community of Auburn, Alabama. Throughout her life, she attended various churches throughout Lee and Tallapoosa Counties.

Ann graduated from Opelika High School with the Class of 1980, where she was a proud member of the marching band color guard and the track team.

Ann was a free spirit who was fun-loving, generous, and giving. She had a beautiful love for singing gospel music and found great joy in spending time with and spoiling her grandchildren. On Wednesday, September 23, 2026, she departed this life at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. She was preceded in death by a nephew, Jarrett Jackson.

- A Sister Like Ours -

I just want you to know how much you meant to me, Steve and Kim

Growing up with you was wonderful.

You were always there with us making everything better for everyone that knew you. You were a very kind-hearted person.

You took care of us, and you would give us everything.

You would give unselfishly...

Even though we might not have said it, we really appreciated everything you did for us. We were truly blessed to have had a big sister like you.

We love you so much. We will miss you.

*Love Always,
Lisa, Kim and Steve*
