- Obituary -

Mr. Cedric Antoine Clark, Jr., beloved son of Mr. Cedric Antoine and Mrs. Gwinetta Clark, was born on May 22, 1999, in Montgomery County, Alabama.

Cedric attended Macedonia Baptist Church in Tuskegee, Alabama. He was affectionately known as “Nuk Nuk” by his family and “Ced” by his friends.

Cedric was a proud graduate of Auburn High School, Class of 2017, and later attended the University of South Alabama in Mobile, Alabama. He had a passion for football and enjoyed playing sports video games. Cedric was employed by Norfolk Southern Railway, where he began his career as a train conductor. Through his hard work, determination, and dedication to his profession, he earned a promotion to Locomotive Engineer within just two years of employment. This achievement was a testament to his strong work ethic, ambition, and commitment to excellence. Cedric took pride in his work and the accomplishments he achieved throughout his career.

Cedric was a compassionate and loving person who cared deeply for his family and friends. He was a wonderful father, brother, uncle, and cousin who cherished spending time with those he loved.

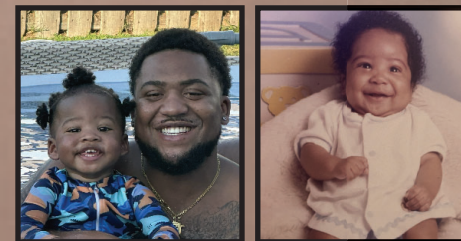

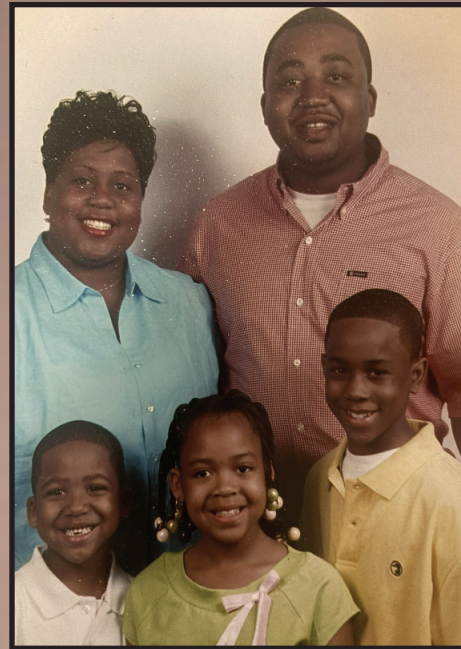

Cedric was also known to take on any tasks that were presented to him. There was hardly anything he could not figure out how to fix or do. If something needed to be done, Cedric was often the person people turned to, and he took pride in being able to lend a helping hand. A devoted Auburn fan, Cedric proudly carried the spirit of “War Eagle!” He also enjoyed the movie Rush Hour, which was among his favorites. His laughter, personality, kindness, and willingness to help others will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

On Thursday, October 1, 2026, Cedric departed this life in Wilcox County, Alabama.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory: his loving parents, Cedric and Gwinetta Ligon Clark of Opelika, Alabama; one son, Beaux Ashton Clark of Montgomery, Alabama; three sisters, Amber Ligon of Opelika, Alabama, Chavante Bryant and Kambria Bryant both of Tuskegee, Alabama; one brother, Chavis (Ravan) Ligon of Opelika, Alabama; six aunts, LaTonya (Thomas) Scott of Auburn, Alabama, Yolanda Clark of Columbus, Ohio, Chelsea Lewis of New Hope, Minnesota, Angela Ligon and Felicia Windham both of Tuskegee, Alabama and Artrice Jones of South Carolina; three uncles, Ellis Ligon of Tuskegee, Alabama, Marvin Houser of Newnan, Georgia and Darryl (Stephanie) Houser; his devoted companion, Azaria Copeland of Montgomery, Alabama; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives, and friends.

Cedric’s life touched many people, and although his time with us was far too short, the love he shared and the memories he created will remain in the hearts of his family and friends forever.

“Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever in our hearts.”

*I thought of you, but that is nothing new.
I thought about you today and days before that too.
Yesterday, I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories, and a picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake, from which I'll never part.
God has you in His arms,
I have you in my heart.*
