THE OBITUARY

Mr. Douglas Quentez Griffin, son of Mr. Douglas Martin and Ms. Barbara Griffin, was born April 5, 1991, in Lee County, Alabama.

At an early age, he confessed Christ and united with Mt. Nebo Missionary Baptist Church in Cusseta, Alabama.

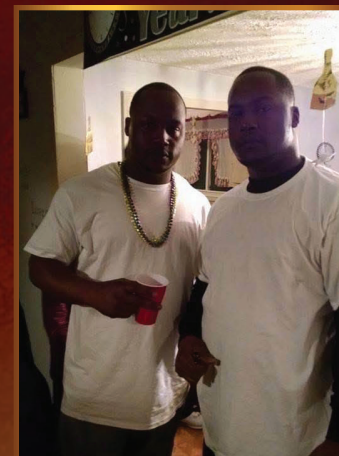

“Quinn,” as he was affectionately known by his family and friends, was fun-loving, outgoing, energetic, and full of life. He never met a stranger and had a unique way of making those around him feel welcomed and loved. His high-spirited personality and infectious energy brought laughter and joy wherever he went.

He had a deep love for music and enjoyed expressing himself through his unique sense of style. Quinn loved dressing up and always carried himself with confidence and personality. Most of all, he loved his family dearly and treasured the time he shared with those closest to his heart.

A devoted Alabama football fan, Quinn proudly supported his Crimson Tide and could often be heard saying, “Roll Tide!” One of his favorite sayings, “Say no more,” became a memorable part of his personality.

On Friday, October 2, 2026, he departed this life in Opelika, Alabama.

He leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Zayden King Griffin of Auburn, AL; mother, Barbara Griffin of Opelika, AL; father, Douglas Martin of Opelika, AL; grandmother, Patricia Martin of Opelika, AL; a bonus mother, Fannie Thomas of Opelika, AL; five brothers, Antavis (Taneshia) Griffin of Opelika, AL, Willie Core of Valley, AL, Antonio Thomas of Beulah, AL, Anthony Torbert and Courtney Thomas both of Opelika, AL; two sisters, Nyesha Thomas of Loachapoka, AL and Shavonna Farmer of Opelika, AL; nine bonus brothers, Sir Stephens Bush of Smith Station, AL, Reginal Bush of South Carolina, Eddie Cooks, Jr. of Auburn, AL, Antonio Martin, Shaundell Martin both of Opelika, AL, Anthony Martin of Lanett, AL, Frederick Crim of Auburn, AL, Darren Barnes of Opelika, AL and Ronald Crim of Lafayette, AL; four bonus sisters, Tameka Ross of Opelika, AL, TaCara Ross of South Carolina, Erica Martin and Karen Barnes both of Opelika, AL; seven aunts, Barbara Martin, Cybelle Hughley both of New York, Barbara Bush of Opelika, AL, Victoria Martin of Lanett, AL, Ruby (Eugene) Perry, June Reed, Diane Thornton, Elaine (Grayling) all of Opelika, AL, April Nias of South Korea, Ann Story of Lafayette, AL and Joyce Stanford of Valley, AL; one great-aunt, Mary Alice George of Bronx, NY; four uncles, Jermaine (Nicki) Martin of Opelika, AL, Sidney (Villel) Reed of New Orleans, LA, Ron (Miriam) Reed of Mt. "SAY NO MORE"

Quinn had a smile that could brighten any day,
A heart full of love and a joyful way.
With music, laughter, and style galore,
His favorite expression was, "Say no more!"

From a family so large, his love ran deep,
With countless memories for all to keep.
Through every gathering, the laughter would soar,
And there was Quinn saying, "Say no more!"

He loved his Crimson Tide, loyal and true,
And proudly shouted, "Roll Tide!" too.
Though his journey has ended, his spirit lives on,
In the hearts of his family, his love remains strong.

No farewell could silence the love we adore,
For Quinn left us memories worth so much more.
And when Heaven welcomed him through its door,
We can almost hear him whisper, "Say no more!"
