- OBITUARY -

Mr. Reginald Lamar Griffin, son of Mrs. Ovalia Griffin Grady and the late Mr. Levoid Ogletree, was born June 24, 1970, in Macon County, Alabama.

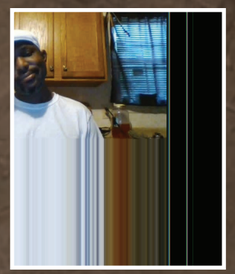

At an early age, he confessed Christ and united with Mt. Sinai Missionary Baptist Church in Auburn, Alabama.

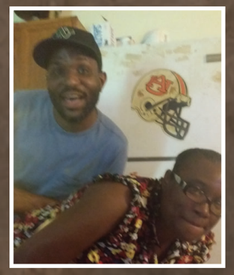

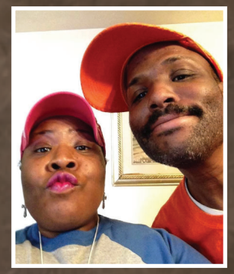

Affectionately known as “Reggie” by his family and friends, he was a proud graduate of Auburn High School, Class of 1990. Reggie was well known for riding his bicycle, his unwavering love for Auburn Tigers football, and his playful sense of humor. He enjoyed working in yards and, most importantly, lending a helping hand to others whenever he could. Reggie will be remembered for his kind heart, jovial spirit, and willingness to help those around him.

On Thursday, October 8, 2026, he departed his life at the East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama. He was preceded in death by: his wife, Andrea Scott Griffin; stepfather, Artie Grady.

He leaves to cherish his memory: five children, Shantoria (Jeffrey) Hunter-Berry, Cortavious Griffin, Jadavious Wilson all of Opelika, AL, Jeremiah James Scott of Auburn, AL and Shakeera Griffin of San Deigo, CA; three grandchildren, LaBrandon Shipman, Regahn Berry and Jaxson Wilson; mother, Ovalia Grady of Auburn, AL; four sisters, Natashia Griffin of Auburn, AL, Shawand (Tyrone) Thornton of Orlando, FL, Dionne Witherspoon of Opelika, AL and Daphene Hardnett of Auburn, AL; one brother, Christopher Pitts of Auburn, AL; one aunt, Doreen Macon of Opelika, AL; one uncle, Hughe (Wendy) Ogletree of Phenix City, AL; devoted cousin, Dominic (Caletta) Macon of Opelika, AL; two devoted friends, Lonnie Love of Auburn, AL and Maurice Morgan of Montgomery, AL; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

- REMEMBER ME -

Remember me with laughter, not with tears,
For I shared my love throughout the years.
Remember my smile, my jokes, and my ways,
The joy we shared on ordinary days.
Remember the kindness I tried to show,
The helping hand I gave wherever I’d go.
Though I am gone, let your hearts be free,
And smile when you think of remembering me.
Remember the good times, both big and small,
The precious memories we shared through it all.
Though my journey has ended and my soul is at rest,
Remember me with love, for I was truly blessed.
