The Life and Joy of Our Little Prince

May 6, 2025 – October 16, 2026

Kayden Jeremiah White, a precious gift from God, was born on May 6, 2025, to his loving parents, Terence (TJ) White and Shannasha (Bre) Buford-White. From the moment he entered this world, Kayden brought immeasurable joy, love, and happiness to the hearts of his family and everyone blessed to know him.

Affectionately loved and adored by his family, Kayden was the youngest of four children. As the baby of the family, he held a special place in the hearts of his parents and siblings. His sweet presence, innocent spirit, and beautiful smile brought warmth and countless precious memories to those around him.

Kayden attended Miss DeAnna's Daycare in Opelika, Alabama, where he continued to grow, learn, and share his sweet personality with those who cared for him.

On Friday, October 16, 2026, Kayden departed this earthly life at East Alabama Medical Center in Opelika, Alabama, at the tender age of one. Although his time on earth was brief, the love he brought into this world will last a lifetime.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his devoted and loving parents, Terence (TJ) White and Shannasha (Bre) Buford-White; his three loving siblings, Katelyn, Kingston, and Kinsley; his beloved grandparents, Tyrone and Joye White, Henrietta Dukes, and Apostle Sherman Buford; his cherished great-grandparents, Charlie and Dorothy Core and Evangelist Mildred Williams; a host of loving aunts, Anthony (Latonya) Dukes, Sherman (Jenny) Buford ,Joshua Buford, Christopher (Veronica) Buford, Shernetta (Antuane) Williams; a host of loving uncles, Reginald (Alexandrea) Hunter, Shernice Pugh, Josiah Buford, and Amiriah S.Buford and his special daycare friend, Ellie Grace Smith.

Kayden also leaves behind a host of loving cousins, extended family members, church friends and family, daycare friends, and many others whose lives were touched by his sweet and loving spirit. Though our hearts are broken and our arms long to hold him once more, we find comfort in knowing that Kayden was a blessing entrusted to us by God. His little life made a tremendous impact, and his memory will forever remain a beautiful part of our family's story.

Forever our baby. Forever in our hearts. Forever loved.

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." — Matthew 19:14 (NIV)

Our Sweet Baby Brother

Kayden, you will always be our sweet baby brother, and we will love you forever. Even though we didn't get to spend as much time with you as we wanted, you will always hold a special place in our hearts. We wish we could hug you, kiss you, play with you, and watch you grow up with us. We will miss you more than words can say, and we will carry the love and memories we have of you wherever we go. You may be in Heaven with Jesus, but you will always be a part of our family. Until we see you again, sleep peacefully, our sweet Kayden.

We love you always and forever. 💙🕊️

Love always,

Your big sister, Katelyn

To My Sweet Man

There are no words to describe what this hole in my heart feels like and how much I already miss you! I was there from the beginning holding your secret arrival, and I'm here now and forever holding you in my heart! So quickly you became TT sweet man and you could do no wrong in my eyes. Bre would tell me "did you just see what TT man did" and I always had an excuse as to why I didn't see it and why you didn't do it. And she would just shake her head and say "Lord his TT so deceived" lol But I guess I really was wrapped in a spirit of deception when it comes to your sweet face, and you know what, I was fine with it. I truly thank God for the year that he blessed us with you in our lives! There was purpose in your coming and you brought more joy in one year than a lifetime of living! Makes me strive all the more to truly live to live again, and see your sweet face! I know. I love you so much!

Until Eternity,
"TT"

A Special Tribute from Your Daddy

Kayden, my sweet baby boy—

I never imagined I'd have to write goodbye to my own son. As your daddy, I was meant to love you, protect you, and watch you grow—but our time together was far too short.

You came into the world on May 6, 2025, and you changed my life forever. Your smile, your little personality, your beautiful eyes—just holding you in my arms was a blessing I'll treasure always.

I used to picture us as a team—Daddy and his two boys, three against three—laughing, sticking together, and making memories. I was counting on you, little man. And now my heart breaks every time I remember those plans.

I can't bring you back home. I can't hold you or hear your sweet voice again. But my faith doesn't erase the hurt—it just gives me strength to keep going, even with tears.

Your life here was brief, but your love and impact on me will last forever. You were loved beyond measure, and you will never be forgotten.

I'll carry you with me every day. I'll keep loving and watching over your big brother, your sisters, and Mommy. And I'll keep saying your name.

Until we meet again, rest peacefully.

I loved you from your first breath, and I will love you until my last.

Forever my baby boy. Forever my son.

Love always,

Daddy 💙🕊️

Mommy's Handsome Beam

My sweet Kayden, you came as a surprise, and you left us as a surprise. From the moment we discovered we were unexpectedly expecting you, our entire world changed. I remember dreaming that you would be a boy with curly hair and that you would be conceived as a prophet. Little did I know how deeply those dreams would touch my heart as I watched your precious life unfold.

I named you Kayden, meaning warrior and fighter, and when I prayed and asked God what your middle name should be, I heard Jeremiah. My sweet boy, your name carried such a beautiful meaning, and you were tiny but mighty through Christ.

You had a way of looking straight into the soul of everyone you encountered. You didn't easily allow just anyone to hold you; it was as though you had to discern their spirit first. There was something so special about you, Kayden. You carried a love and peace that touched everyone around you.

One thing we will forever remember is the way you praised God, saying, "Hallelujah" and "Thank You, Jesus!" You brought so much light into our lives from day one, which is why Mommy always called you "BEAM." You were a beautiful beam of light, and your presence brightened every room and every heart you touched.

Kayden, you served God all the days of your life, and the love you poured into us will never fade. Although our time with you was far too short, the impact of your life will remain with us forever. Mommy's heart will always long to hold you again, kiss your sweet face, and hear your precious voice.

You were my unexpected blessing, my little warrior, my beam of light, and forever my baby boy. Until I see you again, may you rest in the loving arms of Jesus. Mommy will love you beyond this lifetime. 💙🕊️

Forever Mommy's BEAM.
Forever my baby.
Forever loved.
