~ A Beautiful Legacy ~

You gave us life and held our hands,
You taught us how to stand.
With gentle words and patient grace,
You made the world a safer place.
We'll miss the comfort of your voice,
The ways you'd make our hearts rejoice.
The quiet strength you always showed,
The love that in your spirit glowed.
Though tears are falling here today,
We know you aren't so far away.
The lessons that you softly taught,
The peace and happiness you brought,
Will live within us everyday
And guide us as we find our way.
Rest now, dear Mom, your work is done,
Your brightest days have just begun.
We love you more than words can tell,
This isn't a goodbye, just a fond farewell.

Mrs. Betty Jean Ligon Denson, daughter of the late Mr. Richard Bynum and Mrs. Hattie Pearl Ligon, was born April 8, 1964, in Macon County, Alabama.

She confessed her faith in Christ and united with Fresh Oil Full Gospel Church in Opelika, Alabama, where she embraced her faith and fellowship.

She had a special love for music, especially the soulful sounds of Betty Wright and never missed an opportunity to dance. She also enjoyed sports, with a particular passion for basketball and was a devoted Alabama fan who proudly cheered, “Roll Tide!” In her leisure time, she loved watching Western movies and her favorite television show, In the Heat of the Night.

On Thursday, October 29, 2026, she departed this life at Calhoun Nursing Home in Edison, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her husband, Cedric Denson.
