Ulysses D. Miller Funeral Service, LLC
485 Poor’s Ford Road
Rutherfordton, North Carolina 28139

“O death, where is your victory?
O death, where is your sting?”
The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
1 Corinthians 15:55-57

Legacy of Love

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With hearts filled with love, the family of Anna Byers McDowell wish to give our thanks to all for the love and prayers shown during our time of bereavement as the days, weeks, months and years pass remember us in your prayers. May God continue to bless you and your families and keep you in your coming and goings throughout your life.

OBITUARY

On August 25, 1951, Anna Frances Byers McDowell (Jennings) was born to the late Spencer McCarroll and Pirlee Kinard Booker in Tryon, North Carolina at St. Luke Hospital. Her education included small business, administration and computer science and she was an occupational clerk from 1984 to 1990. She completed her biblical studies at Liberty University and United Faith International in which she was ordained as a minister. Anna worked as a U.S. Census Bureau for the Internal Revenue Service while living in Kansas City, Missouri. She also studied under the ministry Full Proof Ministries Pastored by Apostle Timothy Brown and wife Pastor Sharon Brown.

Anna was married to Larry D. Jennings, Sr. and leave behind a legacy from her children's David L. Booker (Vern), Chesterfield Virginia, Karen Carson (Dean), Wellford South Carolina, Sharon Carson (Dana) Inman South Carolina, Charles Ray Carson, Converse Texas, Wayne Gavrick Carson, Tryon North Carolina, Horace Douglas Carson, Tryon North Carolina with 22 grandkids and 17 great grandkids who she loved dearly.

Anna was preceded in death by her sisters Emma Littlejohn, Barbara Booker Burns, and brothers Steve Booker, Lenwood Burnside, William "Bill" Booker, Clemmon "Cleo" Booker, and Albert Booker.

She leaves cherished memories behind to Joyce White, Marie Littlejohn, Olivia Booker, Syble Simpson (Alfred" Al"), Sister-In-Law Sherri Booker an abundance of nieces and nephews and friends who she loved dearly.

The word of God says in Hebrew 13:2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Many angels Anna has entertained during her time of sheltering others in need. She had a heart from God who removed the stoney heart and gave her a heart of flesh and a new spirit. Even throughout her last days her praise was unto God and praise until her last breath. Anna passed away peacefully in her home. As she entered rest, I can hear the Lord saying well done my good and faithful servant and she was faithful until the end.

Mom you will be missed and loved forever in our heart and your memories will always live on through your kids and grandkids until we meet again.
