

Reflections by Daughter

When Moma told me she had cancer, I told her not to worry. No matter what God had put in front of her, "My words were I Got you". I never left her side; she didn't have to fight alone because she had the warrior in me fighting with her. Right now, I'm fine, she is in a better place. She's not suffering anymore, "because she was suffering" My Mama isn't gone she's with me. The day she died, the sun shined so bright on me, I said thank you God and Mama for shining on me and letting me know she's ok and is at peace. I thank you God for giving me that time and me the strength to help her get through it all. I helped my Moma go with dignity, grace, and peace knowing I was there with her. I always said I believe God took my daddy to give me more time with my mother and I never took one day for granted. I love you always!

Obituary

Carrie Mae Brown (Einstein), 68, departed her life on March 2, 2025, at her home.

Carrie attended New Vernon in Bostic NC. She graduated from Isothermal Community College.

She worked for many years in textiles and worked as a cook and did several cleaning jobs.

Carrie was a member of the softball team the Tryon Rockettes. She was the life of the party and always carried a smile, she enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Oh, and you know when she saw you, she was going to ask if you had five or ten dollars.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dolph Jr. and Mary Cornelius Littlejohn; her husband, Leroy Brown; three brothers, Horace Miller, James Miller, Randolph Littlejohn; a sister, Ruth Miller and an honorary son, Randy Littlejohn.

Left to cherish beautiful memories: her daughter, Mia Thomas and a son, Joseph Thomas III (Tammy); honorary son, Julian Miller; two sisters, Mary Sue Carson, JoAnn Twitty (Jerry); Fred Miller (Ruby). sister and brother in-laws, Dorothy Carson Wesley (Freddy), Pauline Wray, Eunice Brooks, Mary Wilkerson, Joyce Hipp (Robert), Mable Brown, Nelson Brown, James Brown, Otis Suber Jr and Alice Weir; grandchildren, Messiah Miller, Lashyah Miller Thomas, Chasten Thomas (Amber) Joseph Thomas IV (Kaylie), Isaiah Thomas and Desmond Stone; great-grandchildren, Kinsley Thomas, Oliver Thomas, Jax Thomas, Leighton Stone, Noa Stone; honorary grandchildren, Randy Littlejohn Jr, Josiah Canady, Londyn Littlejohn, Khadijah Littlejohn, Jennifer Castrejon (Israel) Isreal Barlet ,Jr.; an Uncle, Joe Miller and a host of other relatives and friends
