Reflections of a Life Well Lived

James Samuel Harden of Newark, New Jersey, passed away on July 25, 2023. He was born on June 28, 1941, in Dawson, Georgia, to the late Mr. S.T. Harden and Mrs. Jessie Mae Harden.

He was born and raised in Dawson, Georgia. James attended Terrell County Public Schools. After completing his education, James relocated to New Jersey, pursued his passion for electrical engineering, and enrolled in the Local 68 Union for Electrical Engineering in Caldwell, New Jersey. James married the love of his life Martha Ann Oxford on February 28, 1964. They gave birth to a son, Anthony Harden, who preceded them in death from this union.

James had a remarkable career as an electrical engineer, dedicating 37 years of his life to AT&T in Newark, New Jersey. He mentored young men, sharing his knowledge and expertise. In addition to working, James enjoyed and attended Mount Pleasant Baptist Church.

He was a dedicated husband, father, and grandfather. James leaves behind his beloved wife of 59 years, Mrs. Martha Ann Harden, his grandson Anthony Cooper, his granddaughter Nijhaca Gonzalez, one great-granddaughter, Addison Cooper, and one great-grandson, Kasaan Major. His siblings will deeply miss him: Essie Hogan, Louella Miller, Ceola Lewis, and Willie Miller.

James had an extended family, including five sisters-in-law: Cessie Reed, Evelyn Anderson, Josie Bakon, Delia Delores Oxford, and Marilyn Oxford. Additionally, he is survived by his two brothers-in-law, Otis Oxford, and Willie James Oxford. James had a host of nieces, nephews, and friends who will cherish his memory.
