A Loving Father, Son, Brother, Et Friend

For My Wonderful Husband

When I fell in love with you, it was because of so many wonderful things about you...your strong, gentle arms that hold and comfort me... you warm, infectious laughter that helps keep life in perspective...your caring eyes that communicate understanding and love. All those things I fell in love with then still make me so thankful for Jehovah's gift of you to love today and for eternity. So overjoyed I got to do life and love with you...through the ups and downs... the times we depend on each other to remind us of what really matters... the moments of laughing at the same things, hoping for the same dreams, and praying for Jehovah's best in everything. This is a journey I wouldn't want to take with anyone else...because I'm sure Jehovah has already given me His best in you.

Love Always,

Your Wife Regina
