Reflections of Life

Shebreaker Mays was born on April 27, 1981, in Albany GA, to the parents of Jacqueline E. Mays and Jimmy Harris.

She accepted Christ as her personal savior and joined New Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Parrot, GA. Shebreaker attended public school in Terrell County, Georgia where she graduated from Terrell High School.

On Monday, October 9, 2023, she took the lord's hands as he called for her home at her place of residence. Shebreaker proceeded in death by her mother Jacqueline E. Mays and her grandmother Millie Mays.

She leaves to cherish her memories of her only child Jermy Mays of Dawson; finance of 15 years Charles Nelson JR; two grandchildren Ja'Kingston and Ja'Khari Mays; her grandfather Jerry Mays; her four sisters: Naporsha Mays of Albany, Latasha Cody (Jarvis) of Dawson, GA, Whitney Mays of Dawson, GA, and Shakira Mays of Dawson, GA; two brothers: Brandon Mays of Dawson, GA and Shalarrious Mays of Dawson, GA. She has a host of nieces, nephew, cousins, aunts, and uncles who will miss her dearly.

She was more than just a mom or sister; she was the life of the party, the spark that ignited joy in every gathering. Shebreaker presence was like a burst of fireworks on a dark night, and her sharp wit kept everyone on their toes. With her infectious smile and laughter, she turned ordinary moments into extraordinary ones..."

Constantly thinking, never to be the same. The tears fall quickly just hearing your name. Silence is golden, yet not anymore. Silence brings thoughts I just can't ignore. The nights are sleepless, dreams out of reach. Crying in my pillow to you I beseech. Surrounded by family, I still feel alone. My heart is so empty. This pain I must own. I wish I could hug you and just see your face. But now I have memories to stand in your place. Gone but not forgotten, that's what they say. Of course that is true... but if only you could have stayed.
