Reflections of Life

Bobbie was born on April 15, 1953, to Jeff Craig and Ester

Mae Willis Craig. She professed her love to Christ early in life as a member of Mt. Olive M. B. Church in Oneida, Arkansas. Bobbie was a graduate of C. V. White High School Class of 1971 in Lakeview, Arkansas and continued her education at Coahoma Agricultural College in Clarksdale, Mississippi.

Bobbie mothered with great love her daughters Malinda Miller-Richardson (Natalie) and Terrie Holman (Brian Sr.) and she was also the beloved mother to Tri Kirk, Mark Lindsey, Shanta Lindsey, Renee Lindsey and Diana Lindsey.

Bobbie moved to Chicago, Illinois where she began her career teaching and later moved to Saint Paul, MN. Bobbie taught in Saint Paul at Libby Elementary as a Special Education Teacher until she retired. Bobbie returned to Arkansas and where she worked as a substitute teacher until she moved to Dawson, Georgia to live the remainder of her life.

Bobbie Jean Craig was called home on February 28, 2024, at the age of 70. Bobbie is preceded in death by her parents Jeff Craig and Ester Mae Craig; her siblings, Arthur Craig, Shirley Ann (Lee), Lawrence Craig, Louise Edmond, Jeff Craig Jr., Ophelia Hennigan, Ollie Mae Craig, Ethel Lean Brown, Eddie Lee Craig, and James Holmes Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory her sister Walter Pearl Bradley (James) and her brother Vincent Craig, two sisters in Christ Velma Smith, Mary Dell Green, her children listed above, 35 grandchildren, 35 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

INTERMENT RITUAL/ RECESSIONAL

"You Never Said Goodbye"

You never said I'm leaving You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it, and only God knew why. A million times I needed you, A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place, that no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone for part of me went with you, the day God took you home.
