Reflections of Life

Mrs. Fannie Tolbert Kitchen was born in Stewart County Georgia to the late Mr. Jim and Alice Tolbert on January 3, 1925. She attended Stewart County Schools where she graduated. In the 1940's she decided to move to Sorrento, Florida. It is there she met and wedded the late Mr. Buster Kitchen. Mrs. Fannie worked picking fruit and in the Foliage Industry as a piece worker.

Mrs. Fannie entered eternal rest on Tuesday, March 26, 2024, at her residence in Sorrento, Florida. She is preceded in death by her parents and several siblings: Ruthie Lee Freeman, Louethel Kello, Carrie Williams, Sammie Tolbert Sr., Charlie Tolbert Sr., Benny Tolbert Sr., Jimmy Lee Tolbert, and Jessie Tolbert Sr.

Her hobbies were fishing and enjoying time with her family. Mrs. Fannie never gave birth to any children of her own, but she made an impact on the lives of many of them. She raised her nephew Sammie Tolbert Jr. as if he was her very own. She also cared for a host of niece's, nephew's, great nieces, and great nephews. Aunt Fannie, as they all called her, will truly be missed. She is a beloved neighbor and friend. If you lived in Sorrento or the surrounding areas, you have attended a cookout or party at Mrs. Fannie's.

"You Never Said Goodbye"

*You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it,
and only God knew why.
A million times I needed you,
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
in death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place,
that no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
but you didn't go alone
for part of me went with you,
the day God took you home.*
