

A Celebration of Life

"He Maketh No Mistake"

My Father's way may twist and turn. My heart may throb and ache, but in my soul I'm glad to know, He maketh no mistake.

My cherished plans may go astray, my hopes may fade away, but still, I'll trust my Lord to lead, For He doth know the way. Though it seems nights are dark, and the day will never break, I'll pin my faith, all of it, in Him for He maketh no mistake.

There's so much now I cannot see, my eyesight's far too dim, but come what may, I'll simply trust and leave it all to Him. For by and by the mist will lift, and plain it all He'll make, through all the way, though dark to me, He made not one mistake.

Reflections of Life

Chuck, "Mr. Jackson" if you will," was born in Dawson, Georgia on June 29, 1962, to the late Mr. Maurice Jackson, Jr. and Elizabeth Scott Jackson. At an early age, he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He took pride in being well-versed in and teaching others about the Bible.

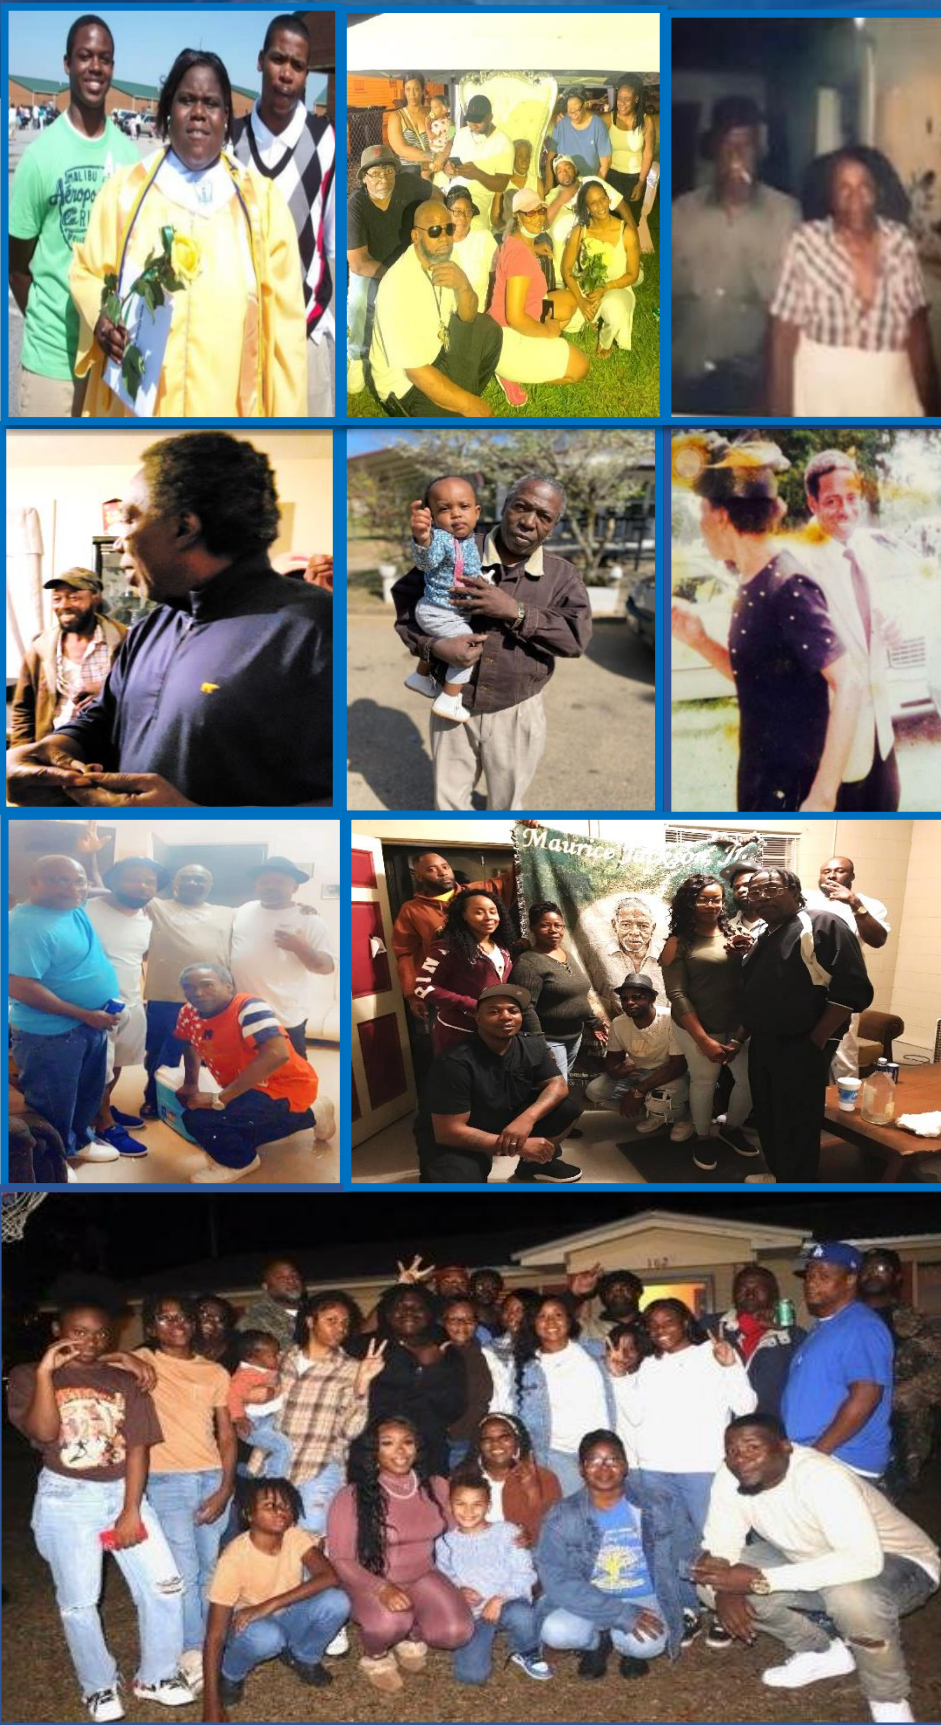

He was educated in the public schools of Terrell County. Where he played in the Mighty Marching Greenwave Band, under the leadership of Mr. GD Burroughs. Mr. Burroughs recognized that Chuck had a special gift; that's where his love for music began.

He served his country, honorably, in the United States Army, where he was a decorated arms expert. After completing his service, he moved back to his hometown, where he held work in the construction field.

Chuck enjoyed engaging in debates. His goal was to challenge you to ask questions and reason for yourself. Chuck was big on family, he expressed his love by having a special name for everyone.

He was preceded in death by his father Maurice Jackson, Jr. Two sisters: Patrick Jackson and Wanda Jackson, and his grandparents, who reared him and loved him as their own.

He leaves abundant memories to be cherished by his mother Elizabeth Scott Jackson, of Dawson, Ga. Three children: Rashad and Shatoria Benjamin of Dawson, Ga, and Micah (Jayda) Williams, of Albany, Ga. His siblings Pearlle Scott and Kencedrick Jackson of Albany, Ga. Frances and Sharon Jackson of Dawson, Ga. Maurice, Pamela, and Tyrone Jackson of Atlanta, Ga. Two grandchildren Elizabeth & Miya Williams. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, HE is a new creation, the Old has gone, and the New has come."
