Reflections of Life

Randy Lee Sims (Raymond) was born on January 9, 1970, to Charlie and Mildred Sims. He was reared in Dawson, Terrell County, Georgia, and lived there all his life. At an early age (Randy) joined Green Grove Baptist Church in Terrell County, and he visited the church on special occasions. Raymond received his education in the public school system of Terrell County. He attended Terrell High School in Dawson. Randy was a friend to many. Whenever you saw him, he always had a smile. He loved hard whenever he was around, and he brought laughter to our hearts. He will be missed dearly. We love you Randy but, God loved you more.

On June 20, 2024, Randy transitioned (2 Tim. 4:7) "He fought a good fight"; He was full of life. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his brothers Charlie Sims, Jr, Calvin Sims, and Nathaniel Sims. Randy loved his family. He was a dad, a brother, an uncle, and a brother-in-law. We will forever cherish the memories and laughs he brought into our hearts. I fought a good fight Don't cry for me. Think of me the laughter and memories we shared.

He leaves to cherish his memories: His son De'Ontaevious Armor and a daughter Kyanana Daniel of Terrell County. A special mate Sharon Parkman; his eight siblings: Freddie (Dorothy) Sims of Dawson, GA, Barbara Sims of Albany, GA, Melissa (Timothy) Sims of Dawson, GA, Fredrick (Marilyn) Sims of Jonesboro, GA, Annie Sims of Dawson, GA, Eric Sims (Monica) of Dawson, GA, and Alfred Sims of Dawson, GA; an aunt Doretha Cox of Albany, GA; Sisters-in-law Rebecca Sim of Dawson, GA and Flossie Sims of Albany, GA; A lifelong friend Vincetrell Johnson, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will miss him dearly.

*I love you more than words can show.
I think about you more than you could ever know. Until forever this will be true, because there is no one I would ever love the way I love you.*

"Loving You Always"

You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it, and only Gods Knows why! In life I loved you dearly. In death I love you still, in our hearts we hold a place that only you can fill. It broke our heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone, a part of us went with you the day God took you home.
