Reflections of a Life Well Lived

Sister Bobby Jean Johnson was born in Terrell County on June 22, 1973, to Mrs. Rose Pearl Johnson and the late Willie C. Johnson, Sr.

She joined the Oak Grove Baptist Church at an early age in Shellman, Ga. She attended Terrell County Public School in Dawson, Ga.

Sister Johnson departed her life at her home very peacefully surrounded by the comfort of familiar surroundings, Bobby transitioned from this world to the next.

She leaves to cherish her loving mother Rose Pearl Johnson, two loving sisters Virginia Pearman and Patricia Johnson both of Dawson, Ga. Her four amazing brothers Tracy Johnson, Vincentrell Johnson both of Dawson, Ga. Carl and Trina Johnson Cuthbert, Ga Willie C Johnson, Jr, Maudell Johnson Albany, Ga. Her two closest friends Amy Nelson -Young, Pamela Benjamin and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces and cousins.

In the gentle arms of Heaven's embrace.
Rests on Auntie with a pure Heart and Grace.
Her kindness and love forever shine bright,
Guiding us through the darkest night.
With a soul as warm as the morning sun,
She touched our lives, our spirits, she'd won.
Her laughter, her wisdom, her gentle smile,
Forever in our hearts, she'll stay awhile.
Though she's flown to the Realm above,
Her spirit lingers, and eternal love, In every
Gentle breeze, in every star that gleams,
Her presence whispers in our dreams,
So farwell, dear auntie, our guiding light,
In Heaven's embrace, you shine so brightly.
You love and kindness forever we'll hold,
In memories eternal, In stories untold.
Love Always, Your Nieces & Nephews
