Mr. Calvin "Boot" Freeman

Celebrating a Fulfilled Life

Mr. Calvin Freeman, son of the late Idus Freeman and the late Mrs. Ruthie Lee Freeman was born on August 27, 1951.

Calvin known as “Boot” graduated from the Stewart County School System with the Class of 1969. Calvin went on to further his education at Morris Brown College. He graduated with a degree in Journalism and became employed with a new station. Later on, Calvin began his career with Delta Airlines, where he took on the role as a steward, security, and ticket agent. Calvin enjoyed traveling, reading, learning new skills, and most of all enjoying life.

Forever in our Hearts

He transitioned on September 14, 2024, at Four County Health and Rehabilitation in Richland Ga. In addition to his parents, 6 brothers Idus Freeman, Russell Freeman, Prather Freeman, Jessie-Frank Freeman, Clarence Freeman, James Freeman; 1 sister Thelma Freeman- Cooper preceded him in death. HE leaves to cherish his memories; 3 sisters Mary Freeman- Parker, Shirley Freeman- Armour, and Norma (Lonnie) Bivins and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. “Boot” as he was called, will truly be missed.
