Celebrating the Life

Theresa Ann Davis, affectionately known as Ann, was born in Coleman, Georgia, on August 2, 1964, to the late Carl Davis Sr. and Clara Mae Thompson Davis. She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, auntie, and friend who touched the lives of everyone she met. Ann's journey on this earth was one of love, faith, and dedication to others.

Educated in the Randolph County School System, Ann graduated with the Class of 1982 from Randolph-Clay High School. Known for her exceptional intellect and warmth, Ann was cherished by her friends and classmates. Her educational journey continued as she attended Job Corps in Atlanta, Georgia, and later earned her certification as a Nurse Assistant. Ann's commitment to helping others was evident in everything she did. She worked at the Randolph County Sheriff's Department as a dispatcher for a few years.

From a young age, Ann's faith in Christ was central to her life. She united with the Virgil Chapel AME Church in Coleman, Georgia, where she became known for her beautiful, anointed voice. Ann shared this gift through singing at programs, conferences, weddings, and birthdays, spreading joy and inspiration to all who heard her.

On December 15, 2024, Ann peacefully transitioned from this earthly journey to eternal peace and rest at Wilson Hospice House in Albany, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her four brothers: Carl Davis Jr., Carver Davis, Willie James Davis Sr., and Robert Earl Davis Sr. However, her spirit lives on through the love she gave and the memories she left behind. Ann's cherished memories will forever be carried in the hearts of her twin daughters, Karla (Curtis) Streeter and Keila (Christopher) Coleman of Cuthbert, GA. Her love and influence extend to her two sisters, Colevious Ingram of Newark, New Jersey, and Bobby Davis of Cuthbert, GA, as well as her sister-in-law, Helen Davis of Cuthbert, GA. Ann is also survived by her four brothers: Calvin Davis of Columbus, GA, Billy Joe (Michelle) Davis of Clarksville, Tennessee, John (Winifred) Davis of Albany, GA, and Tyrome (Felicia) Davis of Abbeville, Alabama. Her precious granddaughter, Zykeila Coleman of Cuthbert, GA, along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren, and friends, will forever hold her memory in their hearts. Ann's life was one of service, love, and devotion. She will be forever loved and remembered for her kindness, her voice, and the lasting impact she had on all those fortunate enough to know her. May we celebrate her life, knowing that her legacy of faith, music, and love will continue to inspire and bring comfort to all who carry her in their hearts.
