A Life Remembered

Hazel Ruth Wright was the daughter of the late Bertha Lee and Johnson Price. She was born September 7, 1940, in Shellman, Georgia. She peacefully departed this life on December 23, 2024, at Dawson Health & Rehabilitation Center in Dawson, GA.

Hazel gave her life to Christ at a very young age and was a member of Mount Airy Baptist Church. Her faith in the Lord Jesus Christ gave her peace and joy. She served her church with love, faith and diligence. She was often called upon by family members and friends as a person for personal wisdom and someone to talk to.

Hazel received her formal education from Shellman Vocational School in Shellman, Georgia. She was joined in holy matrimony with the late Charlie C. Wright Sr. Hazel and Charlie were blessed with a family of six children. Hazel was a devoted wife and mother who loved all her children. She was a very kind-hearted person who everyone loved and respected.

Hazel worked at Altmark Mills for 20+ years and later at Dawson Rubber Company in Dawson, GA. where she retired. Hazel spent her summer vacations in the sunshine state, West Plam Beach, FL. with her lovely niece Betty Williams who she loved and cherished like a daughter.

Hazel is preceded in death by two children: Alfonza Wright Sr. and Linda Wright. She is preceded in death by seven brothers and five sisters: Johnson Price Jr., Isiah Price Sr., Willie C. Price, Eddie Lee Price, David Price, Solomon Price and Rev. Robert Lee Price. Myra Battles, Bertha Price, Vinnie Mae Price, Sally Brown and Ruby Price.

Her beloved memories will forever be cherished by her family: four children, SGM (Ret) Rodney Price (Nedelka) of Fayetteville, NC, Charlie C. Wright Jr. (Shelia) of Edison, GA, Hazel T. Williams and Cheryl M. Billings, both of Dawson, GA. A special niece Gloria Anderson of Albany, GA.
