REV. JAMES TURNER, OFFICIATING

His Life

Mr. Kenneth Alston was born on August 27, 1953, in Bronwood, Georgia. He was the cherished son of William and Pearl Alston. Ken attended Terrell County High School before pursuing higher education at Valdosta State University from 1971 to 1975. Following his college years, he was drafted by the Philadelphia 76ers in 1975, marking the beginning of a significant chapter in his life.

He departed his earthly life on January 9, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of compassion and dedication to service that will be remembered by all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his parents, his siblings: Otis, Ulysses, and Leida Bell, as well as his nephew Michael.

Kenneth is survived by his loving wife, Virginia (affectionately known as Ginny), whom he married on February 25, 2017. Together, they cherished their time with their two puppies, Lily and Toby. He is also survived by his daughter Tasha and granddaughter Ashli, along with a host of nieces and nephews including Joan and Donna who was raised with Ken. Kenneth's family was an integral part of his life, including his living siblings: William (Mardis), who resides in Newark, NJ; Janice from Atlanta; and Debra (Keith), also from Atlanta.

Kenneth was deeply passionate about various activities, including officiating sports, gardening, cooking, and engaging in mission work. His commitment to serving others led him to spend time overseas, where he dedicated himself to mission initiatives. He was a member of the Comunita Cenacola and the Salvation Army, reflecting his strong faith and desire to make a positive impact in the lives of others.

Throughout his life, Kenneth embodied love for his family, his wife, his puppies, and God.
