A LIFE REMEMBERED

A Time to Be Born

Ronnie Tyrone Green was born on August 24, 1956, in Terrell County, Georgia, to the late Charlie Calvin Green and Mary Lois Davis Green. He was the eldest of six children.

Ronnie attended Terrell County High School in Dawson, Georgia. Shortly after graduating, he was employed by Oxford Construction Company. He later left Oxford Construction and began a career spanning over 30 years with ADM in Dawson, Georgia, until his health began to decline.

A Life of Love and Devotion

Later in life, Ronnie met the love of his life of 46 years, his wife, Mrs. Annie Pearl Pollard Green. Together, they built a life filled with love and partnership. Their union was blessed with two children: Shandel Pollard (Christina Pollard) and La'Tonya Green Grier (Travin Grier). Ronnie's legacy continues through his six grandchildren: Cauntillia Pollard, Shandel Pollard Jr., Kentravion Grier, Ke'Amber Grier, Demarrious Grier, and D'Chavious Grier. He also cherished his four great-grandchildren: Ariana Bowens, A'Lonni Grier, A'Mare Grier, and Ace Pollard. Ronnie was a father figure to four additional children, whom he raised as his own: Rodney Jackson, Troy Jackson, George Jackson, and Fredrick Peak. He had a special love for his dogs, Mike Mike whom he now reunites with in heaven—and Tebo Green. Ronnie is survived by his five siblings: Gwendolyn Gardner (John L.), John Green (Dorothy Green), Gregory Green (Jackie Green), Michael Green, and Lorenzo Green (Shannon Green), as well as a host of nieces, nephews, and close friends who will forever cherish his memory.

A Time to Rest

On January 13, 2025, Ronnie Green peacefully passed away at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Dougherty County, Georgia. He was welcomed into the eternal embrace of heaven. His love, laughter, and presence meant so much to so many.

A Life Well Lived

Ronnie was a friend to all who knew him. He cherished his ADM family and brought joy wherever he went. Whether he was joking, playing cards, riding his motorcycles.

A Tribute to His Legacy

The Rhythm of His Stride

“A hard-working Black man rises with the sun,
Shouldering burdens, battles never undone.
Hands calloused from building, from sowing, from care,
With strength in his heart and resolve rare.
His sweat is a hymn, his labor a prayer,
For family, for freedom, for justice that's fair.
Each stride he takes, each mountain he climbs,
Carries the weight of both past and present times.
The fields, the factories, the courtrooms, the streets,
Echo with his footsteps, unyielding beats.
Crafting a legacy, brick by brick,
Breaking through walls with a spirit so thick.
He stands as a pillar, proud and tall,
A reminder that greatness can rise from it all.
Through storms of oppression, his roots run deep,
Planting seeds of hope for the dreams he keeps.
To the world, he is strength; to his family, he's home,
A king without a crown, a force unknown.
A hard-working Black man, steadfast and true,
The soul of the future, the sky's deepest hue.”

Ronnie will truly be missed, but he leaves us with a lifetime of 1956
