Reflections of Life

Kaye Lynn Ford entered this world on Monday, December 17, 1956 as the first child of Marjorie Ford Crawford and later adopted by Mr. Frances Britt Crawford. She grew up a happy child in the home of her grandparents, Berry and Blannie Ford. Because of congenital and health challenges, she, in her later life, became a resident of Dawson Manor Nursing Home where she found a new family in nurses like Edith Teasley and Susan Hightower. Kaye Lynn was the favorite child of Marjorie Crawford, her mother. Mrs. Crawford, in her later years, based all her activities around Kaye Lynn's needs. Kaye Lynn was a major source of happiness while giving meaning to her life. She described Kaye Lynn as sweet, happy, kind and filled with a love that God only knows. All who came in contact with Kaye Lynn would fall in love with her and feel a deep sense of appreciation for life from being in her presence.

As with all of us, she lived and had to eventually answer to her Creator. After a long bout with cancer, on Saturday January 25, 2025, she joined her mother Marjorie Crawford, her grandparents and the great crowd of witnesses.

Kaye Lynn is survived by her father, Frances Britt Crawford; her siblings: Betty Thomas(Rick deceased), Hayward Crawford(Martha), Marvin Crawford(Sherell), Winfred Crawford, Regina Boston(John), Pamela Johnson(Darren); aunts: Margaret Polk (John Deceased) and Bernice Washington(Rodney); nieces and nephews: Dr. Claire Crawford, Dr. Iman Boston, Marvin Crawford Jr., Winfred Crawford Jr., Coach Darren Johnson Jr., Paris Johnson; niece-in-law: Yvette Price (Marquite deceased) and a multitude of cousins, friends and family.

May God forever bless this Angel who has lived, loved and made us all better as a result.
