Reflections of Life

Inez Young Sherman was born on

August 11, 1928, to the late Ruby and Lucious Young Sr. in Graves, GA. She attended James Grigg School in Graves, GA, and at an early age, she confessed her love for Christ and joined Rose Hill Baptist Church in Graves until her health declined. She also worked for Mr. and Mrs. S.S. Mackey for 15 years until her health failed as well.

In 1948, she was united in holy matrimony to Robert Sherman, and from this union, one child was born. She was preceded in death by her parents, three siblings, one great-granddaughter, and a son-in-law.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving and devoted daughter, Lula Sherman Weaver of Dawson, GA; her husband, Robert Sherman of Tampa, Florida; three loving granddaughters, Jacqueline Rhyme, Cassandra Grier, and Tekeylia Hill (Brian), all of Dawson, GA; four step-grandchildren, Georgia, Rosa, Leonard, and Barbara Weaver, all of Dawson, GA; and six loving great-grandchildren, Mark Rhyme, Corderious Grier (JaMela), Aundrea Rhyme, Quintavious Grier, Willie Grier, and Jalexia Bronner (T'yun).

Additionally, she is survived by six loving nieces: Ruby, Loretta, Joann, Louvenia (William), Dessie (Jimmy), and Lynn (Galvester), and three loving nephews: Myron (Denise), Robert, and Larry (Ethel).

She also leaves a legacy of great-great-grandchildren, great-great-nieces and nephews, and a host of friends to cherish her memories. A special thanks to her caregiver, Creyonna Harris, whom she loved, and Phoebe Hospice for a job well done.
