Reflections of Life

Mr. Corry Thamar Vanover was born February 25, 1977, to the late Henry Vanover and Helen Vanover of Dawson, Georgia. Corry or he was affectionately known as “Bambi” accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Countyline Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Jack Johnson in Sasser, Georgia. He was educated in the Terrell County School System and graduated in the class of 1996. Corry then went on to graduate from Albany Technical College with an Associate’s degree in Criminal Justice Technology. Throughout his professional career, he worked in corrections and security. At the time of his passing, he was a counselor at Stewart Detention Center in Lumpkin, Georgia.

On February 15, 2025, Corry departed his earthly life and gained his wings at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany, Georgia. He was surrounded by his loved ones as he transitioned to be with his Heavenly Father. He was preceded in death by his father Henry L. Vanover and sister Rashaundra S. Vanover.

He leaves to cherish his wife Lakisha Vanover and children; his son KeUndre Vanover of Warner Robins, GA, his two daughters KeAuna Vanover and Layla Vanover of Dawson, GA. His grandchildren Kamryn Holloway and Karmyn Vanover both of Dawson, GA. His mother Helen Vanover also of Dawson, GA. Four brothers, Denny Buchanan (Pauline), Sherod Buchanan of Dawson, GA. Reginald Buchanan of Atlanta, GA and Bryan Vanover (Tiesha) of Albany, GA. One sister, Chandra Buchanan of Dawson, GA. One sister-in-law, Stacy Beauford (Terrance) of Dawson, GA. Five nieces, Tamaria Thomas (Charlie) of Leesburg, GA. Kourtney Buchanan of McDonough, GA. Sherrondria Buchanan and Camoria Vanover both of Leesburg, GA and Jordynn Vanover of Dawson, GA. Three great nephews Brycen Thomas, Braylen Thomas, and Owen Lester of Leesburg, GA and a host of loving family and friends.
