His Life

LeCartierre Shonderien Bridges, affectionately known to family and friends as Booney, was born on May 7, 1996, in Dawson, Terrell County, Georgia, to Gretchen Bridges and Ontario Watson.

From an early age, LeCartierre was nurtured in faith and was baptized at I Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Dawson, Georgia. He was a proud Greenwave graduate of Terrell County High School Class of 2014 in Dawson, GA.

Booney had a deep passion for sports, enjoying both baseball and football throughout his youth. He played for the local recreation league and had the honor of competing in All-Star games, showcasing his talent and love for the game. Beyond sports, he cherished spending time with his family and friends, bringing joy and laughter to those around him. Booney embraced life wholeheartedly, living each moment with enthusiasm and a radiant spirit that touched everyone he encountered.

On Saturday, February 15, 2025, at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital, LeCartierre answered the Lord's call and entered into eternal rest. Although our hearts are heavy with sorrow, we find peace in knowing that God doesn't make mistakes. Even in our deepest pain, we trust in His divine plan, knowing that every moment of LeCartierre's life was filled with purpose. His love, laughter, and presence will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

LeCartierre was preceded in death by his paternal great grandparents, Major and Christine Watson and Charlie and Hattie Jones, Sr., his maternal great grandparents, John and Annie Laura Mansfield and Josie Bridges. Though they have gone before him, their love and legacy remained a guiding force in his life, shaping the compassionate and kind-hearted person he became.

The memories and legacy of LeCartierre will always remain constant with his children, Laiyah Bridges and Lennox Bridges; mother, Gretchen Bridges (Terrell Jones); father, Ontario Watson (Juanita Pierce); his brothers, Kentravious Bridges, Jayvion King, Jayden Johnson, DeShone (Keiara) Watson, Marquavious Watson, Michael Covington, Koriaun Reese, Keyon Watson, Dallas Johnson and Kyle Watson; grandparents, Mary Bray, Harry (Debra) Bridges, Nettie (Rev. Freddie) Jones, Ernest Watson and Betty Williams; great grandmother, Mae Thelma Benton; aunts, Prophetess Tanisha (William) Thomas, Tyneshia Jones and Carmen Watson; uncle, Fredrick (Turquoise) Mansfield; nieces, Braylah Watson and Khori Watson; nephews, Kye Covington, Amir Covington and Marjai Watson; godmother, Latricia Browner, who reared him as her own along with SaFira Bowens, SaTira Powell, Jamikal Powell; second mom, Audra (Wallace) Price; special cousin, Jabrenton Mansfield; special friends, Kentravious Monds, Demarious Harris, Kenya Gardner, Jr. and Jerald Reid; very special friend, Sherry and a host of relatives and friends.

Letters To My Dad in Heaven

They say there is a reason

They say time will heal;

Neither time or reason

Will change the way we feel

Gone are the days we used to share,

But in our hearts you are always there.

The gates of memories will never close;

We miss you more than anybody knows...

Love and miss you everyday

Till we meet again

Always & Forever

We love and miss you,

Laiyah & Lennox
