Reflections of Life

Mrs. Sharon Lee Brown, a beloved resident of Bronwood, Georgia, was born on December 16, 1957, to the late Mack Scott Sr. and Hattie Tinsley. A proud graduate of Terrell County High School in Dawson, Georgia, Sharon embraced life with a spirit of joy and dedication. Throughout her years, she found great pleasure in watching television and cherished the opportunity to raise her grandchildren, nurturing them with love and care.

On Tuesday, February 25, 2025, Sharon departed from this earthly life at Columbus Specialty Hospital in Columbus, Georgia. She is preceded in death by her parents and leaves behind a legacy of love; her two children, Shanette Brown and Laretha Brown; her two sisters, Ollie Gardner and Martha Brown; three grandchildren, Cortez Brown, Angel Brown, and Latanya Brown; as well as her sister-in-law, Catherine Harris, and two brothers-in-law, Johnny Bronner and John Bronner; and a mother-in-law: Annie Brown.

Sharon's memory will be cherished by her husband, Jesse C. Brown Sr., who stood by her side throughout their journey together. She is survived by five children: Tricia Small, Troy Harris (Katrina), Courtney Brown Sr. (Jasmine), Jesse Brown Jr., and Patricia Brown. Additionally, she is survived by her two sisters, Norma Jean Harris and Shelia Harris; her two brothers, Henry Harris (Tabiya) and Kenneth Harris; and her sister-in-law, Linda Brown. Her family also includes two brothers-in-law, Freddie Bronner (Rebuy) and Jack Bronner (Glenda), along with a remarkable legacy of 16 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren, and a special friend Rosie. Her kind spirit, nurturing heart, and unwavering love will continue to resonate in the lives she touched. She will forever remain in our hearts.
