Reflections of Life

Mr. Alston Lockett Sr., affectionately known as “Buddy” by his loved ones, was born on August 28, 1948, to Mr. Wilbur Lockett and Mrs. Pank Ella Lockett, both of whom preceded him in death. He was one of ten children, including six sons: Wilbur (Jeanette), Calvin (Shirley), E.C., Emory, Ed (Milerene), and four daughters: Mary (Willie Mack), Louise (Elijah), Helen (Joe Lewis Huie), and Mildred (C.W. Chapman).

Mr. Alston Lockett Sr. received his education in the public school system of Terrell County, Dawson, GA. He later met, fell in love with, and married Ms. Annie Clara McDaniel Lockett. From this union, five sons and one daughter were born: Mr. Alston Lockett Jr. (Detra) of Dawson, GA; Mr. Ernest Lockett (Angela) of Columbus, GA; Mr. Calvin Lockett of Dawson, GA; Mr. Terrence Lockett (Shebreka) of Dawson, GA; and Mrs. Angela Lockett Mitchell (Shaun) of Dawson, GA.

Alston Lockett Sr. made his home in Terrell County, where he raised his children, cherished his family, and retired several years ago. However, as his health began to decline, he made the Dawson Manor Rehabilitation and Health Center his second home. God saw that he was getting tired and called him to say that his new home was ready. He departed this life on Tuesday, March 11, 2025, at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany, GA.

He leaves to mourn his children: Mr. Alston Lockett Jr. (Detra) of Dawson, GA; Mr. Ernest Lockett (Angela) of Columbus, GA; Mr. Calvin Lockett of Dawson, GA; and Mrs. Angela Lockett Mitchell (Shaun) of Dawson, GA. He is also survived by a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, associates, caregivers, and extended family members who provided him with immense love and care from the beginning of his illness until the day that the Lord called him home. None can replace you. You are gone from our lives, but you will forever be in our hearts.
