A Life Remembered

Mrs. Christine Rhyme, a beloved resident of Bronwood, GA, was born on July 30, 1941, to the late Jimmy and Josie Dasher. Her formative years were spent receiving her education at Martin Elementary School in Bronwood, where she began to cultivate her love for learning and community.

From a young age, Christine exhibited a profound love for Christ, which led her to become one of the founding members of the Bronwood House of God Church Keith Dominion, Inc. There, she dedicated over 40 years of her life in faithful service, touching the hearts of countless individuals through her unwavering commitment to her faith and community.

In 1957, Christine married her beloved husband, Mr. Willie Rhyme, of Smithville, GA. Together, they nurtured a family that included seven children, instilling in them the values of love, compassion, and faith. Christine's compassion for others was evident throughout her life, particularly in her dedication to working with the elderly. She devoted 15 years of her career to Magnolia Manor in Americus, GA, followed by 14 years at Dawson Manor in Dawson, GA, where she ultimately retired. Her work was not merely a job; it was a calling that allowed her to make a significant impact on the lives of those she cared for.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Deaconess Christine was a devoted servant of the Bronwood House of God Church. Her passions included fishing, attending church services, and cherishing moments spent with her children and grandchildren. These activities brought her immense joy and fulfillment.

On Monday, March 24, 2025, God called one of His faithful servants home. Throughout her life, Christine faced various challenges but never wavered in her faith. She was a source of inspiration and strength to many, leaving a lasting legacy of love and kindness. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Willie Rhyme Sr.; her son, Willie Rhyme Jr.; her daughter, Vivian Peavey; three brothers, Bill Davis, Jimmy Dasher, and Robert Dasher; two sisters, Lillian Lillard and Emmarene Williams; and three cherished friends, Ozielle Jackson, Fred Scott, and Rev. Lizzie Ruth Brown.

Christine's memory will forever be cherished by those she leaves behind, including her three surviving children: Marcus Rhyme of Cleburne, Texas, Sandra Dykes, and Crystal Rhyme, both of Leesburg, GA. She also leaves behind three special grandchildren whom she raised as her own: Malika Rhyme (her personal caretaker), Antwonette Perry (Patrick), and Nikki Rhyme. Additionally, she is survived by a loving family that includes 12 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, 2 great-great-grandchildren, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss her dearly.
