Reflections of Life

Bobby Lewis Merritt, known as Pee-Wee, was born to the late Bobby Merritt and Lillie Mae Angry Merritt on May 12, 1971. After graduating from high school, he pursued his passion as a barber in the community.

He was preceded in death by his father, Bobby Merritt, and two sisters, Sandra and Mary Merritt. Bobby entered eternal rest on Thursday, April 17, 2025, at Phoebe Sumter in Americus, GA.

He is survived by his son, Bobby Jason Merritt; his granddaughter, Pasley Merritt; his mother, Lillie Mae Angry Merritt; two sisters, Gale and Shawnda Merritt; two brothers, Marcellous Austin (Keisha) and John Wayne Merritt Sr.; three aunts, Mildred Styles of Plains, GA, Leanna White of Americus, GA, and Ola Mae White of Ohio; one uncle, Freddie Clark Sr. Bobby's memory will be cherished by a host of other relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.

"You're Always in Our Hearts"

*In soft whispers, memories dwell,
A heart once bright, now bids farewell.
Through tears, we find the strength to cope,
In love's embrace, we hold our hope.
Though time may fade the pain we feel,
In cherished moments, love is real.
Rest now, dear soul, in peace and light,
Your spirit shines, a guiding sight.*
